Confidential Info

- Team 1
  - What is sensitive
    - Who defines it as sensitive?
    - Ascertain sensitive info from source
  - How to protect sensitive info?
    - Attempt to obtain/produce info without need for NDAs
  - Picture
- Team 2
  - Platform (prototype) NEISAS
    - Share confidential information in a trusted model
    - Share messages
    - Share documents
    - ?Security?
      - CSIRTs use this tool
    - How much does it cost?
  - Principles
    - Need-to-work
    - User/password not enough
    - Encryption
      - Levels of confidentiality
  - Picture
- Team 3
  - Attribution
    - Yes
    - No -- what mechanism for sharing?
  - Disclosure
    - Internal to DSSA
    - External
      - Yes or no
      - Published or not
    - Need to clearly define who is internal to DSSA WG?
  - Mechanisms for:
    - Agreeing to public output
    - Enforcement
    - Sharing without attribution
    - Mechanism for classification
  - Permission must come from source
  - Code of conduct for group
  - Picture
- Team 4
  - Principles (Mikey's suggestion for topic-header)
    - Containment by small/constrained team (output/status)
    - Multiple small teams
    - Define several levels of disclosure (Chatham House rules)
    - NDAs
  - Types of confidential material
    - Data (for analysis)
    - Internal processes/trade secrets
  - Picture
- Team 5
  - Options
    - Sign legal document
    - Use section in the DSSA charter, non-disclosure agreement, no additional agreement
    - Specify different levels of confidentiality?
    - Three levels of confidentiality
    - Sign agreement from the start or for special occasions? -- Mandatory to sign at the beginning.
- Charter
  - Principles
    - Sub-working groups may need to access sensitive or proprietary information in order for the DSSA to do its work
    - These procedures are an exception to accountability and transparency standards
    - No formal NDA required for membership in the DSSA
  - Sub-working groups
    - Only required where members of sub-working groups need to access and protect confidential information
      - If needed: sub-WG members sign formal Affirmation of Confidentiality and Non-Disclosure agreement
      - If needed: project or issue-specific Non-Disclosure Agreement
      - If needed: separate private sub-working group email lists