Brenden: apologies folks

Tapani Tarvainen: Please mute your mics when not talking

Brenden: not sure why I dropped off

Maryam Bakoshi: I muted all lines on AC

Brenden: anyway. having ability to embed application form into other places (web pages) would be great

Maryam Bakoshi: Please feel free to unmute your mic, when you are ready to speka :)

Maryam Bakoshi: *speak

Brenden: yes, there was a lot to like with CiviCRM

Brenden: What consultancy did you speak with Joan?

Maryam Bakoshi: @Joan: the document I put up last week has the cost for memberclicks

Maryam Bakoshi: I can send it to the mailing list

Joan Kerr: Yes for sure, will send

Maryam Bakoshi: Dear all, to help with the clarity of the call, please kindly mute your mic when you are not speaking, thank you! :)

Brenden: Sounds good

Brenden: Absolutely

Brenden: Anything that eases the maintenance

Brenden: Yes, the are ancillary benefits

Joan Kerr: The new strategy would allow us to cross promote each other events

Maryam Bakoshi: Can we create a google doc to capture this?

Maryam Bakoshi: requirements, I mean

Joan Kerr: Yes, that's really important

Joan Kerr: I will do it

Maryam Bakoshi: I will embed the google doc into confluence

Tapani Tarvainen: So Joan creates the google doc. Great!

Maryam Bakoshi: @Joan, great

Brenden: thx Joan

Maryam Bakoshi: I will set up a call with you on Monday, Joan

Brenden: Do we have an idea of deadlines in order to get something up for Marrakech?

Joan Kerr: Monday is good Maryam. Time?

Maryam Bakoshi: 13:30 UTC. I have sent a calendar invite to you

Joan Kerr: ok

Joan Kerr: The call is for Maryam and I

Brenden: oh, great

Brenden: yes, and we will need solid agreement on this between the C's

Brenden: my bad

Brenden: old hand

Brenden: IMO, I would think a public-facing website is not part of this project. Perhaps forms that can be embeded in others websites, and a backend for mgmt but not a public website.

Brenden: ah, definitely membership mgmt pages

Maryam Bakoshi: We could have an FAQ page that provides links/answers to common questions...

Joan Kerr: A minimalist approach initially

Joan Kerr: NCSG membership focussed

Tapani Tarvainen: Yes.

Brenden: right

Brenden: sorry, really bad about that

Brenden: adobe shoud trigger hand to go down ater interventions!

Brenden: Deadlines?

Joan Kerr: Google today

Brenden: can we have requirements by next Friday?

Joan Kerr: Yes

Maryam Bakoshi: Yes sounds like a plan

Maryam Bakoshi: Joan and I will get it ready before then :)

Brenden: and maybe a short list of vendors?

Brenden: possible vendors

Maryam Bakoshi: Yes, have we decided on it being CiviCRM?

Maryam Bakoshi: Sure

Joan Kerr: Next Friday is good

Maryam Bakoshi: Ok great.

Maryam Bakoshi: Same time, Next Friday

Brenden: and we spend first two weeks of Feb evaluating solutions, last two weeks hopefully implementing

Brenden: sounds good

Joan Kerr: Yes

Maryam Bakoshi: Nice approach, Brendan :)

Joan Kerr: I will be in LA Feb 3

Brenden: Nope sounds good.

Brenden: have fun in LA

Joan Kerr: Happy

Joan Kerr: Yes

Maryam Bakoshi: I will send the transcript to Sam

Brenden: excellent 30 minutes!
