Guidelines Review Committee Charter - (revised 2022)

Purpose

The purpose of the ccNSO Guidelines Review Committee (GRC) is to review the current guidelines and to ascertain whether they reflect current practices and working methods, identify potential gaps, and based on this analysis propose changes to the current guidelines to the Council.

Scope of activities

The Committee will undertake the following activities: - Develop and maintain an overall schedule for review of guidelines in order to assist the Council and membership of the ccNSO to engage and provide timely input into the processes;

- Develop a set of general principles for ccNSO guidelines;
- Provide regular updates to the Council and community on the progress and anticipated developments via written updates, designated sessions at ccNSO meetings and other means, such as but not limited to webinars;
- Propose the changes on a guideline by guideline basis to the ccNSO Council at regular intervals and in accordance with the adopted work plan;
- After completion of the review of the Guidelines, review the Rules of the ccNSO;
- Prepare and submit the Final Report to the Council. The Final Report should include at a minimum:
  - · an overview of the considerations and principles taken into account by the GRC to conduct its analysis and proposed changes,
  - an overview of the guidelines reviewed,
  - recommendations, if any, to change the Rules of the ccNSO.

The GRC is tasked to review the current guidelines and to ascertain whether they reflect current practices and working methods, identify potential gaps, and propose changes if considered beneficial. In addition, the WG develops new guidelines and procedures for the ccNSO as Decisional Participant and other post IANA Function related roles and responsibilities. Examples of the work of the GRC are the Guidelines of Nomination of ICANN Board members and the Guideline pertaining to the Rejection Action Process.
