Julie Hedlund:@all: There will be a placeholder call scheduled for Monday, 04 March at 15:00 UTC

Anne Aikman-Scalese:Hi Robin!

Martin Sutton:Sorry for my late arrival, hi all.

Anne Aikman-Scalese:HI Martin

Anne Aikman-Scalese:QUESTION: Who bears the cost of creating more awareness? Is it in the ICANN budget? QUESTION

Anne Aikman-Scalese:QUESTION: Does that bear on application fees? Part to be dedicated to universal acceptance?

Anne Aikman-Scalese:OK thank you

Anne Aikman-Scalese:COMMENT: I dont' think the AGB is particularly "verbose". It strikes me that it will not be less "verbose" as a result of this complicated policy process and it seems pretty clear that it will take time to redraft the AGB once our policy recommendations are approved by the ICANN Board. COMMENT

Justine Chew:+1 Jeff

Anne Aikman-Scalese:OK - does that suggest that someone should start identifying those sections? to be placed in Annexes? (as if staff were not overworked but what about an independent contractor to speed things up?)

Anne Aikman-Scalese:Thanks Jeff

Martin Sutton:Good option raised by Anne

Martin Sutton:The output from the ICANN Board Workshop suggests they have tasked the Goran to discuss implementation planning at ICANN64, could be useful to start listing ideas that could be passed to Goran from the PDP WG

Anne Aikman-Scalese:IN terms of getting an edit on the AGB as to putting policy and history into links to appendices, that may not need to wait for an IRT. Not sure...

Anne Aikman-Scalese:Good point Jeff - not really our call as to when work on our policy rerecommendations starts.

Anne Aikman-Scalese:If there are windows as proposed by Neustar, you could consider that a shorter period is appropriate for brands and longer period of outreach before window opens for Applicant Support and Community Applications

Anne Aikman-Scalese:COMMENT: Neustart makes a very good point at line 14 - hopefully this will be tagged for discussion in full WG

Justine Chew:Just to note that ALAC's comment for 2.4.2.c.2 covers 2.4.2.c.2.1 and 2.4.2.c.2.2

Justine Chew:Agree with Jeff, line 28 not really divergence

Julie Hedlund:@Justine: Changed to "Agreement (qualified)"

Julie Hedlund:@Justine: Will add ALAC's comment for 2.4.2.c.2 to 2.4.2.c.2.1 and 2.4.2.c.2.2

Steve Chan:Just did so Julie and Justine...

Anne Aikman-Scalese:Re line 36 ICANN org - should we ask ICANN org to estimate the "adequate time for the shift"?

Anne Aikman-Scalese:Yes

Justine Chew:How about "neutral" for line 28?

Justine Chew:Thanks for additions for ALAC's comment.

Anne Aikman-Scalese:@ Justine - not sure why line 28 would be "neutral" - it says "supports". Is there something I am not getting?

Justine Chew:I mean Agreement (neutral) but I am not going to object to "Agreement (qualified)"

Anne Aikman-Scalese:qualified how? (jsut so i know)

Steve Chan:Sorry, kline numbers have shifted since the ALAC comments in c.2 were added in two places.

Steve Chan:*line

Steve Chan:I think you all are talking about the BRG comment, which is now line 30 in the Google doc

Justine Chew:@Anne, that is why I suggested Agreement (neutral) for BRG comment line 30 now

Anne Aikman-Scalese:line 28 was Neustar. Is Justine talking about BRG or ALAC comment?

Justine Chew:@Anne, BRG now line 30

Anne Aikman-Scalese: OK - thanks that is clear now. Agree with that.

Anne Aikman-Scalese:Waht line are we on now?

Steve Chan:Line 53 Anne

Justine Chew:Line 60 BC comment -- "applicant that have demonstrated willingness to go through the entire application process ... " implies a non-first time applicant?

Steve Chan:@Justine, I read that more as a gating factor, i.e., maybe they've paid the registration fee?

Anne Aikman-Scalese:It would be odd to deny the phone support to those considering application for the first time. It's the opposite of promoting outreach.

Justine Chew:That's what I was thinking too, @Anne

Anne Aikman-Scalese:WE absolutely have to stop creating the impression that new gTLDs are an exclusive playing field where only the big players are qualified to play.

Justine Chew:And I read the BC comment to imply what that, I'm hoping I have misread them as Jeff and Steve seem to suggest.

Jamie Baxter | dotgay:+1 Anne

Justine Chew:And I read the BC comment to imply *exactly that, I'm hoping I have misread them as Jeff and Steve seem to suggest.

Steve Chan:Did I space out, or did we skip a handful of comments?

Steve Chan:Specifically line 68 and 69

Steve Chan:I'm not sure :)

Cheryl Langdon-Orr (@CLO3 PDP Co-Chair):Excellent progress today @Jeff, if this pace keeps up you should hopefully complete the 2.4.3 tab in the next call

Cheryl Langdon-Orr (@CLO3 PDP Co-Chair):No more than you went through today though

Justine Chew:Thanks!

Anne Aikman-Scalese:This "access" for new applicants to needed information is incredibly important to applicant freedom of expression. It's also analagous to helping small businesses develop - all over the world. They will all need approved Registry Operators and accredited registrars but they need access.

Cheryl Langdon-Orr (@CLO3 PDP Co-Chair):Bye for now

Martin Sutton:cheers Jeff and all

Anne Aikman-Scalese:Bye all
