10:12:51	From Steve Chan: @Susan, sure, we'll cover that again.
10:13:18	From Maxim Alzoba: it is possible to use 'pop out' on the top left corner of

10:13:32	From Michael Flemming: I have Julie and Steve both sharing their screens
10:13:45	From Steve Chan: Nothing to add, thanks!
10:13:47	From Michael Flemming: Who am I supposed to look at?
10:14:21	From julie.hedlund: @Michael: You can look at the agenda (me) for now, but when we go t	to the Review of Summary Documents you can switch to Steve's screen.
10:14:27	From Kristine Dorrain: Apparently you can close the entire Zoom app while the audio is runn	ing and the chat is open. I can't figure out how to get it back so I'm going to try to close out and	l try again.
10:14:57	From Steve Chan: Hand raised now (I can't actually raise my hand)
10:15:14	From Kristine Dorrain: Oh, my now it's back. OK. Well I'm going to have a lot to

10:15:30	From Cheryl Langdon-Orr : :-)
10:17:45	From julie.hedlund: @Cheryl: Actually the transcript will be the record for this

10:18:11	From Steve Chan: @Susan, hopefully that was helpful:) If not, happy to go over it again.
10:18:36	From Susan Payne: @steve, thanks
10:18:43	From Vanda Scartezini : i use zoom on my business here so no big problems
10:19:18	From Maxim Alzoba: recording of zoom works well (my last conf call was

10:23:33	From Donna Austin, Neustar : okay, thanks Cheryl
10:25:04	From Steve Chan: To put a finer point on the previous section, do the policy concepts mal	ke sense?

10:26:52	From Steve Chan: Hi Cheryl, hand up for a quick clarifying point.
10:27:20	From Olga Cavalli: hi apologies for being Ite, some issues with zoom but now its fine
10:29:05	From Susan Payne: @Steve that doe smake saense, ie I understand what you

10:30:05	From Susan Payne : yes, that would help
10:31:00	From Donna Austin, Neustar : I think Newstar should be Neustar :-)
10:31:30	From Steve Chan: i'm going to blame autocorrect:)
10:31:54	From Donna Austin, Neustar : Open the queue Cheryl
10:32:21	From Michelle DeSmyter : @Jamie - please let me know if you need a dialout

10:37:01 From Anne Aikman-Scalese: Agree with Jamie that community applications take longer to build. 10:37:35 From Maxim Alzoba: Also GEO applicants (cities) work on annual cycles (mayors offices are not too flexible due to heavy regulation) From Justine Chew: Support Cheryl's remark on Communications Plan. Which is 10:39:06 why we think more than 6 months may be needed. 10:39:33 From Cheryl Langdon-Orr: Noted Justine 10:40:53 From Maxim Alzoba: or at least non-objection from the relevant governments (for GEOs) 10:41:09 From Annebeth: I have to run, is there anything more from my side you need? 10:42:29 From Justine Chew: I suspect we may need to distingush between communications period and application period. 10:42:41 From Anne Aikman-Scalese: Annebeth - thank you - what period would government applicants need between window open and application deadline? 10:43:20 From Jamie Baxter | dotgay : my larger comment is that I am most concerned the concept of time required for various application types is not reflected in the current docs, and I don't think that should be lost or dropped out of the conversation 10:43:24 From Maxim Alzoba: it seems to be Kavouss ... was 10:43:32 From Annebeth: #Anne, I am afraid that Olga is the right person to answer that - or perhaps Kayouss? Who is calling now? 10:44:14 From Anne Aikman-Scalese: I was thinking Work Track 5 might address. THank vou.\ 10:44:37 From Annebeth: I will make a note of that, Anne, and ask Olga next meeting. 10:44:49 From Anne Aikman-Scalese: THank you Annebeth! 10:47:44 From Vanda Scartezini: @ annebeth - last time for instance, Sao paulo could not join due the short period because we were changing governemnt at the time, besides it was also vacation summer period. guess governments need at least 6 months to guarantee pass through all the authorities needed, also my point would be the final time to apply shall fall in spring or autumn to avoid vacation on both hemispheres 10:49:29 From Flip Petillion: Apologies, I need to step out for a client meeting. Flip From Steve Chan: For the comment from ICANN org about 2.2.3.c.1, that's 10:50:30 referring to Applications Assessed in Rounds (full WG), in case that was not clear. 10:52:35 From Justine Chew: Yes, corrrect 10:58:21 From Cheryl Langdon-Orr: Sure did 10:59:04 From Donna Austin, Neustar: Can someone remind me what GSC is? 10:59:27 From Justine Chew: @Donna, GSC or GSE? 10:59:37 From Anne Aikman-Scalese (IPC): THis s is a bit odd since Donna had said we were not considering questions now but now Steve says we are discussing new ideas. Very confusing. 10:59:43 From Justine Chew: @Donna, never mind;) 10:59:49 From Steve Chan: Good point Donna, just added.

From Donna Austin, Neustar: Thanks Steve, I was confusing it with GSE.

From ALBERTO SOTO: Sorry, I hav another metting. Thanks, bye

- 11:01:43 From Anne Aikman-Scalese (IPC): My screen is still holding on 2.4.2.c.2.1. Is there a reason it won't move?
- 11:01:49 From Steve Chan: @Anne, CLO will correct me if I am mistaken, but indeed, now is the time for substantive discussions though focusing on new ideas/concepts.
- 11:02:15 From Steve Chan: I am on 2.4.2.c.6:)
- 11:02:21 From Donna Austin, Neustar: @Anne, i'm up to c.6
- 11:02:38 From Vanda Scartezini : sorry Justine was not privately for you
- 11:02:57 From Vanda Scartezini: repeating here: help line is quite relevant- last time just because I knew who to cal I got the info needed by the applicant, but someone not regular to ICANN would not get it
- 11:03:24 From Anne Aikman-Scalese (IPC) : No commnt Cheryl my screen is held back don't know why
- 11:04:14 From Steve Chan: @Anne, not sure why your screen is not moving. Maybe toggle between the two share screens, maybe that will refresh the view?
- 11:04:58 From Anne Aikman-Scalese (IPC): my screen is back on 2.4.2.c.2.1 I don't know why it is doing that. will log off and log back in.
- 11:04:58 From Michelle DeSmyter : Sending Anne a private message as well
- 11:05:14 From Justine Chew: Or deploying online chat support not just for new gTLD applications to spread operational costs?
- 11:06:13 From Steve Chan: Sorry CLO, Donna, Kristine we missed that as well
- 11:06:16 From Cheryl Langdon-Orr: L plates with Zoom hands
- 11:06:22 From Cheryl Langdon-Orr : Sorry
- 11:07:06 From Kristine Dorrain: It seems like raised hands don't go to the top of the list? That is definitely a bug.
- 11:07:09 From Vanda Scartezini : @donna WhatsApp could help for chat on line without cost
- 11:07:15 From Maxim Alzoba: e-mail is still quite fast for responses (and leaves traces)
- 11:07:26 From Cheryl Langdon-Orr: Fair point Donna, noted and phone/email support is still (Itrust) a support method for all prospective applicants
- 11:07:33 From Maxim Alzoba: chats are guite informal
- 11:07:42 From Justine Chew: I wonder if ICANN could look at using a chatbox -- just throwing the idea out there.
- 11:07:58 From Kristine Dorrain: @Vanda, many large orgs cannot use WhatsApp
- 11:08:18 From Maxim Alzoba: to prove anything, applicants would have to use screenshots a lot, so e-mail is better in this
- 11:08:35 From Katrin Ohlmer: + 1 Maxim. Which issue from the 2012 round are we going to solve, anyway?
- 11:08:55 From Maxim Alzoba: the issue was lack of info to answer and not keyboards
- 11:09:06 From Justine Chew: +1 Maxim
- 11:09:14 From Rubens Kuhl: Most large orgs do not allow WhatsApp because its license doesn't allow professional use. That changes when one of the accounts is a Business account.
- 11:09:16 From Maxim Alzoba : yes
- 11:09:32 From Vanda Scartezini : yes Maxim if the help line really answers timely the email

	11:09:53	From Rubens Kuhl : Have to drop now.
	11:10:03	From Rubens Kuhl : Will hear the remaining part of the call, bye
	11:10:13	From Cheryl Langdon-Orr: Thanks Rubens
	11:11:08	From Donna Austin, Neustar : It's a good point Kristine
	11:11:59	From Donna Austin, Neustar: There's also a fine line about the type of support
	ICANN should	be providing to applicants. They should not be providing coaching of any sort to applicants.
	11:12:13	From Kristine Dorrain: +1 Donna.
	11:12:40	From Cheryl Langdon-Orr: And it is important that the planary is very clear on what we are ta	alking about in all this is we are making any recommendations
	11:12:49	From Jamie Baxter   dotgay : +1 Christa i think it would be valuable data points

	11:13:07	From Maxim Alzoba: +1 Donna, it is about client support
	11:13:30	From Vanda Scartezini : + 1 Donna
	11:13:30	From Kristine Dorrain: @Maxim, who is the client and what sort of support are you imagining?	?
	11:13:45	From Kristine Dorrain: (I just want to be clear what we're discussing)
	11:13:48	From Justine Chew: Yes, agree with Christa's point. Difficult and should not discriminate against interested parties who may not end up applying. We should look at communicatio	ns as improving awareness also.
	11:13:51	From Maxim Alzoba: Applicants -> paid to ICANN, customer relations after that
	11:15:07	From Maxim Alzoba : sometimes it was a week
	11:15:15	From Vanda Scartezini: yes Maxim, majority of question came after the

	11:15:56	From Vivek Goyal : +1 Maxim
	11:15:57	From Kristine Dorrain: @VAnda, that is very helpful.
	11:16:16	From Justine Chew: Is short response time already one of the metrics for ns strategy? If not, it should be.
	11:19:19	From Susan Payne: Agree with Donna - although as to the need for greater
	• •	e approached "crunch time", it is also important that an applicant hasn't left it to and then is expecting others to ICANN to answer questions that are arising
	•	naven't allowed enough time for the task
	11:19:28	From Maxim Alzoba: the issue is, sometimes even SLA would not help (instead another insignificant question added to trip the timer of SLA)
	11:19:40	From Christa Taylor: To Donna's pointed out, it also overlaps with FAQ and suggesting answers to from prior questions and ensuring its updated in a timely manner
	11:19:53	From Susan Payne: "others, ie ICANN" - sorry for typo
	11:20:06	From Maxim Alzoba: the FAQs were created during the process, not before
	11:20:25	From Donna Austin, Neustar: @Susan, I agree re the crunch time comment, it

11:24:34 From Christopher Wilkinson : Trying to log on. Zoomit not yet on. CW

11:24:41 From Justine Chew: How does the themes/trends of "6 months may not be enough ...." reconcile with the earlier comments around 3 months period in earlier questions? 11:25:13 From Jamie Baxter | dotgay : @Justine .. i believe they are in conflict 11:25:27 From Maxim Alzoba: @Justine, governments do not work in such short manner (GEOs) 11:25:50 From Kristine Dorrain: Isn't the longer comm plan supposed to help address that? 11:26:12 From Kristine Dorrain: community or geo TLDs could start working right away...? (perhaps I'm being too simplistic) 11:26:26 From Justine Chew: @Jamie, @Maxim, agree. The ALAC believes 6 months is not enough which is why I asked my question. 11:27:12 From Maxim Alzoba: bye all, have to drop 11:27:51 From Jamie Baxter | dotgay : @Justine .. i'm on the same page as you. any plan must consider all applicant experiences in order to not disadvantage or discourage some 11:27:57 From Donna Austin, Neustar: I could argue that given there has been 7 years between now and the 2012 application window, that there has been a considerable communication period in terms of awareness and education about new gTLDs, and therefore the communications period doesn't need to be as long. From Jamie Baxter | dotgay : @Donna .. i push back on that. although we are 11:28:38 speaking about this, what is being done publicly to outreach to communities or others? 11:28:59 From avri doria: given how long it is going to take until this actually starts i think you have time for as long a comms period as you decide on. 11:29:00 From Justine Chew: @Donna, to whom? 11:29:30 From Steve Chan: Two hands up and one minute left 11:29:47 From julie.hedlund: @Donna & Cheryl: Donna's comments in the chat are part of the record :-) 11:29:59 From Christa Taylor: In WT1, there was an expectation that sufficient time to allow for outreach would occur and likely exceed the minimum 3 months 11:30:02 From julie.hedlund: Everything in the chat is part of the record, along with the transcript and the recording. 11:30:29 From Vanda Scartezini: thank you Julie. 11:30:48 From Susan Payne: I think there's an assumption that the comms period only runs after the AGB is finalised, but there can be plenty of general awareness raising before that From Steve Chan: Monday, 22 April 2019 at 20:00 UTC for 90 minutes 11:30:54 11:31:27 From Vanda Scartezini: need to leave now. great call thank you 11:31:33 From Donna Austin, Neustar: Agree with Susan and the comment made by Avri 11:31:55 From Collin Kurre: Thanks all 11:32:02 From Donna Austin, Neustar: Thanks Cheryl From Susan Payne: thanks Cheryl 11:32:05 11:32:06 From Katrin Ohlmer: Thanks Cheryl! 11:32:06 From Christa Taylor: Pretty good for the first zoom call! 11:32:12 From avri doria: bye, thanks 11:32:14 From julie.hedlund: Thanks everyone! From Greg "Shazam" Shatan: Bye all! 11:32:17
