

My name is Tatiana Tropina, I am a Senior Researcher at the Max Planck Institute for Foreign and International Criminal Law (IT law department). I am working on legal and regulatory frameworks in the field of cybersecurity and cybercrime, in particular, law enforcement access to data in transmission and stored data in criminal investigations. I'm participating in the ePDP as an alternate of the Noncommercial Stakeholders Group. I'm also a GNSO councillor at ICANN.