

Dear All-

To introduce myself, I am Diane Plaut, one of the ICP representatives of the EPDP. I am an intellectual property attorney of 25 years, having worked at law firms and in senior roles at large corporations. I am the General Counsel and the Privacy Officer at Corsearch. I am a certified privacy professional and have set-up the privacy, data protection, compliance and security infrastructure at Corsearch, with GDPR as a focus given our geographical position with offices centered in the U.S. and EU. I hope to provide practical insights and perspectives from both an IP legal and practitioner perspective and providing guidance and sharing insights from a privacy and global data protection requirement standpoint. I am new to ICANN and appreciate the many different voices and interests of the representatives and look forward to working collaboratively; listening, learning and contributing, to productively find working and successful solutions to achieve the important mission of this group.

Sincerely,

Diane
