4) Why do you want to contribute to the new 2016-2019 MEAC Strategy Working Group?	Turkey is located between middle east region and Europe which makes it familiar with both sides. Being a part of MEAC Strategy is essential for us because we have strong relations with the countries within this region. We also think that building a common strategy will empower all the participants. Moreover, while developing the strategy we can detect our weak points so that we can improve our systems.
