03:11:54 Jacques Blanc (RrSG): @cheryl : fully concur here

03:20:32 Jim Prendergast: General Observation from an observer. it's quite frustrating when people take the time to develop a comment and submit it and get no acknowledgement of how it was considered. even if it was rejected. it's a time intensive exercise for you but I believe it will be appreciated by the community and hopefully set an example for how comments are treated in other comment periods.

03:22:12 Cheryl Langdon-Orr: I certainly hope we are doing that @Jim, but let us know if not...

03:22:13 Jim Prendergast: clo said it faster than I could type

03:31:08 negar.farzinnia: Jim — please note that ICANN Bylaws require any Review Team to publish how the public comments provided were considered. Please find the exact language here:

03:31:16 negar.farzinnia: Section 4.6 (a) (vii) (B) states that “At least one draft report of the review team shall be posted on the Website for public review and comment. The review team must consider the public comments received in response to any posted draft report and shall amend the report as the review team deems appropriate and in the public interest before submitting its final report to the Board. The final report should include an explanation of how public comments were considered as well as a summary of changes made in response to public comments.”

03:33:31 avri doria: quiet again. at least for me.

03:33:45 negar.farzinnia: Thanks, Avri. It’s being worked on.

03:34:24 avri doria: thanks. it was just since Jim did not jump on it figured it might just be me.

03:34:51 Tola: Back too...

03:35:36 Cheryl Langdon-Orr: How is the audio now?

03:38:17 Cheryl Langdon-Orr: We were definitely not limiting our views to primarily Gender but we must need to clarify and link to the WS2 output as well in the text

03:39:23 Tola: Audio is good. Thanks, Cheryl.

03:39:58 avri doria: it is great, except for when it isn't
