

Zoom Chat Transcript | IRP-IOT Meeting | 19 October 2021

:59:16 David McAuley (Verisign): I share the hope that we can move forward to resolution of some of the issues and I believe the notion of moving to subgroups should be a GREAT step in that regard.

01:01:52 Liz Le: Both items are still under review by ICANN Legal.

01:07:37 Liz Le: ICANN Legal is happy to participate in all of the subgroups.

01:08:36 Scott Austin: Susan I volunteer for the initiation of IRP

01:13:11 David McAuley (Verisign): fair point

01:22:07 Bernard Turcotte: time check - 57 minutes left in call

01:25:36 Bernard Turcotte: we will have a change of Zoom support in a few minutes and the screen may go blank for a minute.

01:28:34 David McAuley (Verisign): What Sam and Susan say makes sense to me about CEP

01:30:30 Sam Eisner: I think that there are potentials for the tolling in CEP to more universally address the issues we've discussed here in relation to Reconsideration and DIDP, but it might not

01:31:50 Sam Eisner: But it will be hard, I think to finally conclude on procedure for tolling as it relates to Reconsideration or DIDP without seeing how CEP overlaps the two, including the benefits of putting ICANN and the ICANN community on notice of exploration of an IRP

01:34:44 Arasteh: There are two 60days??=?

01:34:57 Arasteh: What 135 days composed of ?

01:38:28 Sam Eisner: The follow-on IRPs have challenged the Board's action in denying the Reconsideration

01:38:51 Sam Eisner: They have typically not been on the same action as the Reconsideration

01:39:26 Liz Le: The Bylaws provide that Board shall issue a final determination on Reconsideration Requests within 135 days from the date of initial receipt of the Request. (Article 4, Section 4.2(r))

01:40:49 Sam Eisner: But we do share the goal of minimizing IRPs, as that is a benefit for all in the ICANN community, while still having the IRP available as a meaningful accountability mechanism to challenge times when ICANN is believed to violate its Bylaws/Articles

01:46:22 Sam Eisner: I have to drop for a previously scheduled call. Look forward to discussing more in the future

01:53:11 David McAuley (Verisign): ok, I was unaware of that, thanks Susan

01:55:20 Bernard Turcotte: bye all

01:55:34 Scott Austin: Bye and Thank you!
