

Ing. Bruno Parente

Graduation and Masters in Engineering from ITA, Postgraduate in Cyber Crimes and in Aeronautical Management and Law from Unisul. After that, graduated in Law from Unisul. From the Expert on Public Policy and Government Management career is assigned to the role of Advisor to the Minister of Science, Technology and Innovation and alternate representative at CGI.br. He held the positions of Project Manager at the Organizational Models Department, Chief of Staff at ApexBrasil and Substitute Director at the Civil Aviation Department. Experience in Science, Technology and Innovation projects arising from the experience in structuring a project office at ITA, teaches courses in Administrative Law and Cybersecurity at Enap.