18:06:15 From Marc Blanchet to Everyone:

FYI, RFC7720 is BCP

18:06:40 From Marc Blanchet to Everyone:

yes, I started the document as an IAB document

18:07:09 From Ken Renard to Everyone:

Suggest an informal get-together at November IETF to discuss 7720 updates?

18:07:46 From Marc Blanchet to Everyone:

IAB is the right body to push this document.

18:08:35 From Wes Hardaker to Everyone:

thanks Marc

18:08:42 From Marc Blanchet to Everyone:

Wes, would be interested in working on it with you.

18:11:52 From Marc Blanchet to Everyone:

I see the same process as before: RFC7720bis in IAB/IETF. then RSSAC001v2 be worked in parallel but then wait for publication of RFC7720bis so the reference to RFC7720bis is stable.

18:13:25 From Marc Blanchet to Everyone:

The situation is vastly different than at the time of RFC7720 discussions. There were some "contention" on what the IETF/IAB should be saying about root server operations and other considerations.

18:13:41 From Marc Blanchet to Everyone:

we are not in the same situation.

18:17:39 From Ryan Stephenson to Everyone:

Agree to Karl and Duane
