Dear Sirs

At Large Representative on Whois Review Team

I am enthusiastic and about ICANN participation in support of its mission and desire to serve, dedicate time and attention to fulfil the duties of the above role.

In the past, I have been involved in several cross-organisational consultations held at the ministerial and local and regional civil society levels involving online projects eg. E-commerce; assessment and harmonisation of ICT legislation, online internet document retrieval; review and critique of proposed communication interception, digital protection and electronic transactions legislation; intellectual property issues relating to technology; innovation and digital content production- all as related to end-users and entrepreneurs.

I am apt and familiar with the level of consultation, experience and skills required to collect, collate, comprehend and disseminate individual end-user interests as it relates to ICANN's current proposed Whois policies, consumer rights and protection. Further, I am dexterous in the utility, preparation and presentation of documentation and arguments in the English language.

Thank you for your kind consideration and attention in reviewing my application. I look forward to your further correspondence and am happy to respond to any of your queries or comments.

Yours faithfully,

Cintra Sooknanan
