candidates for regular term positions next year. To be considered by .the 2008 AFRALO for a regular vacancy you would need to apply again

The AFRALO values your interest in being a candidate for the positions it is charged to fill. We expect and rely upon your integrity in presenting your qualifications and experience. We appreciate your significant effort in completing this SOI.

Nomination for ALAC

Statement of Interest AFRALO 2007

Introduction

Any individual who wishes to be considered for selection by the AFRALO will need to complete an AFRALO Statement of Interest (SOI) (see below), in full, and return it to the AFRALO. AFRALO will only consider electronic submissions via e-mail.

To be considered by the AFRALO, the SOI must be received no later than 20 March 2007 (23:59 UTC). Send your completed SOI to afri-als@atlarge-lists.icann.org

It is in your best interest to submit your SOI soon so that AFRALO can follow up with the people you ask to provide references for you, or with you if we have questions.

The AFRALO relies heavily on the information you provide in the SOI, and the information given by the people you ask to be your references. The primary sources of information about you and your qualifications for appointment are your SOI and the names of references that you provide. We might contact you again for more information or clarification and you are welcome to send questions to the committee at any time. The committee might contact you. Be thoughtful about the information you provide to help the AFRALO learn as much about you as possible. Choose your references carefully so they provide a broad view of your experiences and abilities. You must askthe people you select as references before submitting their names to the AFRALO; they should know they have been asked to provide a reference and its purpose. Spam, mail filters and other problems are making it increasingly difficult for the AFRALO to contact your references; you must ensure that your references expect to be contacted by us.

We also strongly recommend that you read and understand ICANN's mission and core values as defined by the organization's bylaws:

http://www.icann.org/general/bylaws.htm#I

SECTION E. Consent and Authorisation

(E.1) Under the AFRALO's procedures, your candidacy will be treated as confidential unless you give the AFRALO your permission to disclose it or unless the AFRALO is consulting your references and conducting third-party reference checks from selected sources on a confidential basis. Third party checks may also be required as part of a due diligence process necessary before we can accept candidates for leadership positions in ICANN.

Once selections are made, the AFRALO will make the identities of only the Selected Nominees public. Although the AFRALO will take reasonable steps to ensure that its confidentiality procedures are followed, Candidates and Selected Nominees shall have no claims against ICANN, the AFRALO, or affiliated persons in the event information is disclosed despite our adherence to these procedures.

You also authorize the AFRALO to consult with your references, to investigate other information publicly available about you, and to conduct additional third-party reference checks. You will not be entitled to review or access any of the information received, obtained, generated, or considered by the AFRALO regarding any Candidate or Selected Nominee, or any of the AFRALO's discussions or deliberations regarding any Candidate or Selected Nominees.
Candidates and Selected Nominees have no right to challenge or seek review of the AFRALO's selections.

indicated in (A.2) above, would you permit the secretary of this year's AFRALO to retain your name (based on the same preferences) and transfer your SOI to the secretary of the 2008 AFRALO for possible consideration in the event that a mid-year vacancy occurs? Please indicate Yes or No:

[x ] YES [ ] NO

This option may be exercised only in the event that a mid-term vacancy occurs and does not mean you will be included in the pool of candidates for regular term positions next year. To be considered by the 2008

 AFRALO for a regular vacancy you would need to apply again.

The AFRALO values your interest in being a candidate for the positions it is charged to fill. We expect and rely upon your integrity in presenting your qualifications and experience. We appreciate your significant effort in completing this SOI.
