Purpose and scope

These draft Rules of Procedure are presented to the community as the basis for Rules of Procedure to be used for the purpose of the At-Large Advisory Committee activity.

It shall be for the ALAC, to determine whether or not modifications will be made before adoption of these Rules, and ALAC may amend the rules for their use as they shall see fit; it is not necessary for the community as a whole to adopt rules which are identical.

Once adopted these rules are meant to be used as a routine matter in the activity of the ALAC.

The source of the Ordinary Rules is the Rules of Procedure used by the General Assembly of States Parties to the Convention Concerning the Protection of the World Cultural and Natural Heritage and closely follow the Rules of Procedure of the UN agency UNESCO.

Since the complete Rules in the source are very extensive, and might be thought more detailed than are needed for routine use by the At-Large community, the ICANN Staff [and the ALAC Secretariat present herein] a simplified version of the complete Rules of Procedure.

The drafters have provided, however, that the full Rules of Procedure of the UN General Assembly may be invoked by participants of any meeting, or the Chair of any meeting, which is using these Ordinary Rules, as needed, to allow complex situations or difficult negotiations to be facilitated in a rules-based framework.

The UNGA Rules of Procedure are available in several languages and may be retrieved from <http://documents.un.org/advance.asp> by searching for the symbol 'A/520'. The version current as of the date of this document is Rev 16.

The source of the Ordinary Rules may be retrieved from <http://whc.unesco.org/en/garules/> in both English and French versions.

1. The Chairperson shall open and close each meeting. He/She shall direct the discussions, ensure observance of these Rules, accord the right to speak, put questions to the vote and announce decisions. He/She shall rule on points of order and, subject to the present Rules, shall control the proceedings and the maintenance of order. He/She shall only vote in the case of a tie.
2. Should the Chairperson be absent during a meeting, or any part thereof, he/she shall be replaced by the Vice-Chairperson. A Vice-Chairperson acting as Chairperson shall have the same powers and duties as the Chairperson.
3. The mission and responsibilities of the Chair of the ALAC are:

1. Preparing and proposing the agenda for the meetings;
2. Chairing the meetings of the Committee;
3. Interacting with ICANN Staff for administrative and organizational matters;
4. Representing the Committee in written communication, in the Public Forum and in meetings where there is no specific appointment;
5. Calling for votes on different matters, and ensuring that the proper instruments are available for the vote;

8. Monitoring money expenditures and the budget situation;
9. Facilitating and encouraging participation of all ALAC members in ALAC activities;
10. Delegating tasks to ALAC members when needed (e.g during the face-to-face meetings, etc.)

Rule 10 - Election of Chairperson

1. Only standing members of the At-Large Advisory Committee are eligible to serve as Chair. If at any point in time the Chair leaves the membership of the ALAC for any reason, he / she shall immediately cease the function of Chair as well.

Rule 11 - Public Meetings

1. Meetings shall be public unless decided otherwise by the ALAC

Rule 12 - Quorum

1. A quorum shall consist of a simple majority of the ALAC members referred to in Rule 1.3 present and represented at the Assembly.
2. if a quorum is established at the beginning of a meeting, the quorum remains regardless of how many members leave.

Rule 13 - Order and Time Limit of Speakers

1. The Chairperson shall call upon speakers in the order in which they signify their wish to speak.
2. For the convenience of the discussion, the Chair may limit the time to be allowed to each speaker. The chair may also, for the same purpose, limit the number of speakers on a question.
3. The consent of the Chair must be obtained whenever an observer wishes to address the ALAC.

Rule 14 - Points of Order

1. During a discussion, an ALAC Member may raise a point of order; such a point of order shall be immediately decided upon by the presiding officer.
2. An appeal may be made against the ruling of the presiding officer. Such an appeal shall be put to the vote immediately and the presiding officer's ruling shall stand, unless overruled by a majority of the delegations present and voting.

Rule 15 - Procedural Motions

1. During a discussion, any delegate may move the suspension or adjournment of the meeting or the adjournment or closure of the debate.
2. Such a motion shall be put to the vote immediately. Subject to Rule 14.1, such motions shall have precedence in the following order over all other proposals or motions before the meeting:
 1. Suspension of the meeting;
 2. Adjournment of the meeting;
 3. Adjournment of the debate on the question under discussion;
 4. Closure of the debate on the question under discussion.

Rule 16 - Resolutions and Amendments

1. Draft resolutions and amendments may be proposed by the participants referred to in Rule 1 and shall be transmitted in writing to the Chairperson, which shall circulate copies to all participants.
2. Motions need to be seconded by another delegate.
3. As a general rule, no draft resolution or amendment shall be discussed or put to the vote unless it has been circulated sufficiently in advance to all participants.
4. Whenever a motion is presented, the Chair will allocate appropriate time for discussion, and the Committee will try to debate and reach full consensus on the matter approached by the motion. The Chair will try to facilitate consensus by proposing possible compromises that can accommodate the views of all Committee members, including minority views.
5. If the Chair deems that consensus has been reached, he/she can propose to the Committee to approve the consensus by a "no objections call". To this effect, the Chair will post a "no objections call" message to the public ALAC list, stating the text of the motion being proposed – which shall reflect the consensus reached during the discussion, and thus might be different from the original motion, according to the Chair's own judgement – and giving 7 (seven) calendar days for objections. The motion will be approved if no delegate posts a formal objection to the motion to the public ALAC list in the seven days, or, even before the deadline, if all delegates express formal support for the motion, either in person (if at physical meetings) or remotely.
6. If no consensus has been reached, or if the "no objections call" does not result in the approval of a motion, the original motion and any other counter-motions presented during the discussion shall be put to votes in the order of presentation. A motion shall be considered approved if at least five delegates cast a non-abstaining vote, and if the number of votes in favour of the motion is higher than the number of votes against. The vote will be open for 7 (seven) days, but the Chair may close it before the deadline if all delegates have cast their vote, either in person (if at physical meetings) or remotely.

Rule 17 - Voting

1. Each delegate referred to in Rule 1.3, shall have one vote in the ALAC.
2. Voting shall normally be by a show of hands. Electronic voting shall also be permitted where the Chair indicates that this manner of voting shall be used.
3. When the result of a vote by show of hands is in doubt, the presiding officer may take a second vote by a roll-call. A vote by roll-call shall also be taken if it is requested by not less than two delegations before the voting takes place.
4. When an amendment to a proposal is moved, the amendment shall be voted on first. When two or more amendments to a proposal are moved, the Assembly shall first vote on the amendment deemed by the presiding officer to be furthest removed in substance from the original proposal, and then on the amendment next furthest removed therefrom and so on, until all the amendments have been put to the vote.

5. If one or more amendments are adopted, the amended proposal shall then be voted upon as a whole.
6. A motion is considered an amendment to a proposal if it merely adds to, deletes from or revises part of that proposal
7. The ALAC shall endeavour, when discussing any non-procedural question, to decide issues before it by general agreement. Voting shall be relied upon only to the extent that is necessary in cases where general agreement cannot be reached. Where a vote on a non-procedural question shall be required, the measure shall be carried if it receives a two-thirds vote of those delegates present and voting.

Rule 18 - Procedures for the Presentation of Candidatures

1. No earlier than one calendar month and no later than three weeks before the beginning of an ICANN Meeting where, according to the schedule of paragraph 1.c, an ALAC officer has to be elected, the current Chair of the ALAC will send to the public ALAC list an "election call" message, listing the officers that are to be elected at that ICANN Meeting, asking for nominations, and stating the deadline according to the following paragraph 18.2.
2. The deadline for nominations for all open officer positions shall be 14 (fourteen) days after the date of the "election call". Only delegates can nominate or self-nominate, by posting a message to the public ALAC list. Anyone who will or has a chance to meet eligibility requirements after the next ICANN Annual General Meeting can be nominated; it is not necessary for nominees to meet eligibility requirements at the moment of the nomination, but, if elected, they will have to meet them before taking their position. Nominations of individuals who certainly will not be able to meet the eligibility requirements after the closure of the next Annual General Meeting are invalid.
3. Nominations must be accepted by the nominee by sending a message of acceptance to the public ALAC list (or to the person who nominated them, who will then forward it to the public ALAC list, if they do not have posting privileges to the public ALAC list at the time) by the deadline of 7 (seven) days after the deadline for nominations. Nominations that are not accepted are invalid.
4. After the deadline for nomination acceptance and before the beginning of the ICANN Meeting, the Chair will post to the public ALAC list an "election summary" message. This message will contain a summary of all valid nominations for any open position. In such message, the Chair will also notify the day and time in which the actual vote will happen; such day and time must be comprised between the beginning and the closure of the ICANN Meeting, except when the Meeting is also the the Annual General Meeting. In this latter case, the day and time of the vote must be comprised in the first 48 (fortyeight) hours after the closure of the Annual General Meeting; thus, the electorate will include the delegates whose term starts at the closure of that Annual General Meeting, and will not include the former ALAC members whose term ends at the closure of that Annual General Meeting.
5. Nominations shall then be discussed on the public ALAC list and at the physical ALAC meetings during the ICANN Meeting.
6. At the day and time of the vote, staff will provide delegates with a mechanism for voting that meets the following requirements:
 1. It allows for each delegate to cast their vote in a confidential manner, so that no other delegate or officer shall know it;
 2. It allows for delegates who are not physically present to cast their vote remotely (also in advance of the day and time of the vote, if they are unavailable at that moment)
7. Each delegate can cast up to one preference for each open officer position, picking among the list of validly nominated individuals published at rule 18.4. Votes for other individuals are considered equivalent to abstention.

Rule 19 - Procedures for the Candidate elections

1. A quorum must exist for the election to be valid.
2. Instant-runoff voting (IRV) will be used as the voting system to determine the winner. (ref - Wikipedia)
 1. Voters rank candidates in order of preference.
 2. If no candidate receives an overall majority of first preferences the candidates with fewest votes are eliminated one by one, and their votes transferred according to their second and third preferences (and so on), until one candidate achieves a majority.
 3. After votes have been collected, staff will examine them and call the result.
3. The newly elected officers assume their position at the closure of the Annual General Meeting.
4. In case two or more candidates receive the same, highest number of preferences, a tiebreak vote is to be conducted.
 1. The Chair will select a new date and time for a new vote on that position, at least 7 (seven) days later than the current vote; in such vote, only the candidates that received the same, highest number of preferences will be eligible to receive preferences. The Chair will then immediately send a new "election summary" message according to rule 18.d, and the procedure will then restart from 18.5?
5. In case no candidate could be elected for any other reason (lack of valid nominations, lack of five valid preferences...), the Chair will immediately post a new "election call", thus reopening nominations. The procedure will then restart from 18.6?
6. Incumbent officers shall continue to serve in their position in full standing until a valid result is obtained for the election and a new officer is elected.
7. If for any reason whatsoever (including lack of quorum, lack or loss of eligibility requirements, resignation, or recall) an officer position becomes vacant before the end of the term, the Chair will promptly start an election to fill it, by sending an "election call" message and starting the procedure from rule 18.1

Rule 20 - Recall Votes

1. A recall vote can be initiated by:
 1. A request, specifying the officer to be recalled and the reasons for such proposal, posted to the public ALAC list and supported by at least five delegates;
 2. The Chair, upon verification of the lack or loss of eligibility requirements, or of the officer's failure to meet participation requirements set forth in rule 22.3.
2. In case a recall vote is initiated, the Chair will send a message to the public ALAC list, announcing such vote, and including the date and time for the vote, selected by the Chair and situated no earlier than 7 (seven) and no later than 14 (fourteen) days after the date of the announcement. Between the announcement and the vote, the matter will be discussed on the public ALAC list, including counter-arguments by the officer under recall.
3. Staff will set up a voting instrument meeting the requirements set forth in 18.6. Each delegate will be allowed to cast a vote picking among "in favour", "against" or "abstain".
4. In case at least nine votes are cast in favour of recalling the officer and at least threefourths of the delegates cast a vote (including abstentions), the recall is successful; in all other cases, it is not.
5. In case of successful recall, the Chair will promptly post an "election call" to start the procedure defined in section 18, to elect a replacement. The recalled officer will continue to serve until a replacement is elected.

Rule 21 - Meetings

1. The ALAC shall meet physically at all ICANN meetings, and virtually by mailing lists and conference calls. Ordinarily, at least one conference call per month will be held.
2. When meeting physically or virtually, decisions on a matter of substance cannot be taken unless absent delegates are given or have been given the opportunity to express their opinion or cast their vote.
3. At least 7 (seven) days before each meeting or conference call, the Chair will post a proposal for the agenda of the meeting. In the following 4 (four) days, any delegate can request the addition of other items to the agenda of the meeting. A final agenda will then be published by the Chair.
4. If the duration of the meeting is insufficient to deal with all agenda items, the remaining ones will be deferred to on-list discussion or to future meetings.
5. For a 1 hr online meeting, there should be maximum 2/3 issues for discussion on the Agenda.
6. The Agenda shall be clear and task based, so that delegates could prepare in advance for the online meeting (e.g. have some ready notes made, etc.);
7. When some delegates can not attend the online meeting, they will share in advance in a written form, their position/views on the Agenda issues/problems: e.g. via the emailing list, ALAC web page;
8. Everyone shall confirm at least a day prior to the meeting about his/her availability to participate in the meeting;
9. Names of the delegates who confirmed their availability to participate in the online meeting shall be attached to the Agenda;
10. There shall be a tentative order of the "speakers" provided in advance – and this order shall be followed during the online meeting;
11. During the teleconference, the time shall be strictly monitored and each delegate shall take the maximum advantage of the 2-3 minutes allocated for him/her for the certain issue on the Agenda;
12. The "speakers" will not be interrupted but given the chance to use the time allocated in the best possible way;
13. All questions/issues/concerns should be addressed by the delegate after the "speaker" finished the speech;
14. 5-10 minutes shall be allocated for group discussions, questions, concerns, recommendations, etc. at the end of the online meeting.

Rule 22 - Minimum Participation Requirements

1. Delegates are expected to actively participate in all aspects of the Committee's work. This includes some qualitative commitments and quantitative requirements.
2. The qualitative commitments are:
 1. Reading and commenting in the ALAC online forums;
 2. Following the ALS certification process and, if members, voting in accreditation votes;
 3. Participating in ALAC conference calls;
 4. Attending physical ALAC meetings (and/or, for liaisons, meetings of the bodies to which the person is liaisoning) at ICANN meetings;
 5. Providing feedback on any ICANN vs. ALAC matters/issues whenever asked to/needed;
 6. Serving as a liaison to the public.
3. The quantitative requirements are:
 1. If members, casting a vote (including abstention) in at least 3/4 of ALS accreditation votes;
 2. Participating in at least 2/3 of the ALAC conference calls in any 6 month period;

3. Attending at least one physical ICANN meeting in any 9 month period;
4. Completing at least one feedback survey on ALAC issues/matters in any 6 months period.

4. The participation requirements set forth in this section shall be considered met if and only if the quantitative requirements stated in Rule 22.3 are met.

5. For ordinary ALAC members, in case of failure to meet the requirements, the Chair will privately encourage the member to resign. If this does not happen by 14 (fourteen) days from that communication, the Chair will formally notify the entity responsible for appointing the member, with a message copied to the public ALAC list, and ask that the appointment is immediately reconsidered.

Rule 23 - Code of Conduct

1. The ALAC discussion lists and its other online collaborative spaces serve two purposes. They are where we discuss ICANN-related policy issues and attend to administrative tasks related to the management of ALAC.
2. Content that is acceptable in our online collaborative spaces is defined as:
 1. Discussion on ICANN-related policy issues,
 2. Discussion of ALAC administrative matters,
 3. Announcements of conferences, events, or activities related to ICANN matters.
3. Inappropriate postings include:
 1. Unsolicited bulk e-mail,
 2. Discussion of subjects unrelated to ICANN policy, meetings, activities, or technical concerns,
 3. Unprofessional commentary, regardless of the general subject,
 4. Postings being used to abuse, harass, stalk, or threaten others,
 5. Postings that are libellous, knowingly false, ad-hominem, or misrepresents another person,
 6. Postings that violate an obligation of confidentiality,
 7. Postings that violate the privacy of others,
 8. Announcements of conferences, events, or activities that are not related to ICANN matters.
4. The ALAC Chair is empowered to suspend or restrict a person's posting rights when the content that person has posted is inappropriate and represents a pattern of abuse. The Chair defines and determines what is inappropriate content on a case-by-case basis. Our definitions are not limited to this list. If the Chair suspends posting rights or deletes a comment or link, he will say so and explain why. When determining the duration of the suspension, the Chair is encouraged to take into account the overall nature of the postings by an individual and whether particular postings are an aberration or typical.
5. Occasionally, a participant may engage in what amounts to a "denial-of-service" attack to disrupt the consensus-driven process. Typically, these attacks are made by repeatedly posting messages that are off-topic, inflammatory, or otherwise counter-productive, and the Chair may choose to revoke the participant's posting rights. In contrast, good faith disagreement is a healthy part of the consensus-driven process. For example, if the group is unable to reach consensus, this is an acceptable, albeit unfortunate, outcome; however, if that group fails to achieve consensus because it is being continuously disrupted, then the disruption constitutes an abuse of the consensus-driven process. Interactions of this type are fundamentally different from "the lone voice of dissent" in which a participant expresses a view that is discussed but does not achieve consensus. In other words, individual bad faith should not trump community goodwill.

2. The Chair of the Assembly may likewise invoke any rule or rules from the same source for the same reasons.
3. When Rule 26.1 or 26.2 is invoked, the Chair may terminate the operation of the rules so invoked at a time of his or her choosing, or, if he believes that the invocation is not in the interests of the Assembly, may refuse to allow the invocation.
4. Where the UNGA Rules of Procedure are invoked through the provisions of Rule 26.1 or 26.2, should a conflict arise between the rule or rules invoked and these rules, these Rules shall take precedence, except where the combination of these Rules and those invoked would result in an impractical or unworkable process in the judgment of the Chair.
5. The following terms in the UNGA Rules of Procedure shall have the following meanings when invoked under this Rule:
 - "President" shall mean "Chair"
 - Vice-President" shall mean "Vice-Chair"
 - "Member" "Members", or "Members of the United Nations" shall mean that class of delegate referred to in Rule 1.2 of these Rules
 - "Secretary-General" shall indicate the senior person responsible for the operations of the Secretariat.

 - "Important Questions" shall mean "matters of substance"
 - "Security Council" shall mean "ICANN Board of directors"
6. The following UNGA Rules may not be invoked under either Rule 26.1 or 26.2. Where a range of rules is indicated, that range shall be inclusive of the indicated beginning and ending Rules:
Rules 4, 49, 51, 52, 55, 98(a), 98(b), 134 - 138, 142 - 151

VII. MODIFICATIONS TO THE RULES WHERE A VIRTUAL MEETING IS HELD

2. When a Virtual Meeting of the Assembly is held, the following Rules shall replace the original:

- 7 The Chair shall communicate the beginning and the ending of the debate upon a given topic. Members shall be out of order if they continue to communicate to the meeting on a question after the Chair has communicated the ending of debate and out of order communications shall not form a part of the record of the Assembly.
