

Vanda Scartezini

- Electronic engineer with R&D management specialization among others, More than 30 years of experience as executive in private and public companies , research centers and international organizations;
 - Nowadays is chair of the board of Altis (www.altis.org.br) Software & Services and Fitec (www.fitec.org.br); Partner of Polo Consultores Associados and IT Trend, consulting companies since 1986, acting national and internationally; is also technical advisor of Lawyer offices, Turnaround and Internet companies in areas as Internet and ICT in general as well as Intellectual Property.
 - Since 2000 is member of ICANN – Internet Corporation for Assigned Names & Numbers, (www.icann.org) having been country representative, then board member and now is users board vice chair, representing Latin America & Caribbean.
 - Acted twice as National Secretary in the country, once for Technology and afterwards for IT Policy. Acted also as President of Brazilian Patent Office. During such terms had proposed several successful programs, promoted software export, heading several missions and international agreements and was responsible for the approval of two relevant laws – Patent Law in 1996 and Information Technology Law in 2001.
 - Is also MBA professor of FGV- Fundação Getulio Vargas (Known Business School in Brazil) , published books, technical papers national and internationals and had received several awards and honor recognitions.
-