- II. Best Practices
- III. At-Large Communications Channels
- IV. Critical Role of Regional At-Large Organizations and At-Large Structures
- V. Know Your Customer

Communicating in a Distributed Environment

Global companies with many products and disperse audiences use a distributed yet targeted model to amplify their message by reaching the intended audience with consistent yet tailored messaging.

Direct to consumer

Direct to retailer

Distribution channel

- Manufacturer → Distributor
- Distributor → Retailer/Seller
- Reseller/retailer → End User/Influencer

Communicating in a Distributed Environment: A For-Profit Example

INGRAM MICRO

- $50 Billion global technology distribution company
- Represents more than 1,500 technology vendors
- Customer base of 161K retailer/reseller customers in 200 countries
- Indirectly serves 90% of the global population

✓ Comms strategy:

- Represent vendors by attracting resellers/retailers in specific audience channels
- Train resellers/retailers and arm them with consistent messaging to target sales channel end-user audience

✓ Benefits:

- Brand consistency across channels
- Expectations are established and aligned
- Reputational benefits
