This session builds on previous work during ICANN72 and a ccNSO workshop held in November 2021 when ccTLDs and the broader community suggested areas that the ccNSO should get involved in with respect to DNS abuse. An ad hoc committee was then formed to work on a proposed roadmap, which includes sharing experiences and best practices aligned with the ccNSO role. During ICANN73, the committee will present the roadmap, consult with attending ccTLDs, and discuss next steps. Depending on community feedback, the ccNSO Council is expected to adopt the roadmap during their meeting on Thursday, 10 March.

ccNSO Governance session

Tuesday, 8 March | 16:30-18:00 UTC

Heads up: ccNSO members soon start voting on the adoption of the new ccNSO internal rules! Also, should the ccNSO develop Conflict of Interest Procedures, and if so, what and how?

The ccNSO Guideline Review Committee (GRC) will inform the ccNSO membership about the vote on the new ccNSO rules, which propose to replace the 2004 rules. Voting is expected to begin after ICANN73. The new rules would have a direct impact on the governance structure of the ccNSO, specifically on the respective roles and responsibilities of the ccNSO Council and ccNSO members.

In addition, the GRC will launch a discussion on the ccNSO Conflict of Interest (COI) procedures. The aim of the consultation is to seek input from the ccNSO community and other stakeholders on the scope and relevance of the COI procedures for the ccNSO.
