FALSENESS

INTENT TO HARM

MISINFORMATION

Unintentional mistakes such as inaccurate photo captions, dates, statistics, translations, or when satire is taken seriously. Spreading false information that you think is true.

DISINFORMATION

Fabricated or deliberately manipulated audio/visual content. Intentionally created conspiracy theories or rumors.

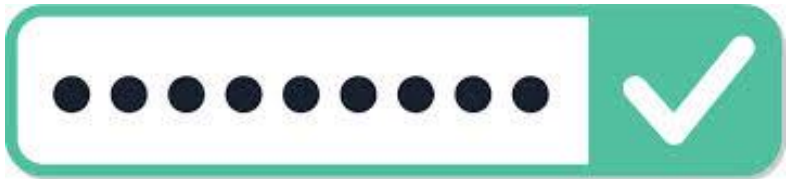

MALINFORMATION

Deliberate abuse of private information with the intent to harm or intimidate. For example, sharing someone's personal emails online—while this is not false information, it is distributed with malign intent.

Privately Owned Public Space
