MODEL ICANN CONFERENCE

Day 2 - Part 2

Breakout to Research on Topics and Stakeholder Positions

Prep Session

Role Assignment:

- The team must vote on or divide the roles of Chair, Vice-Chair, and 2x Notetakers among your group members.

Group Responsibilities

Chair

- The Chair's key role will be to formulate (and decide) your group's positions on the problem statements.
- The Chair will facilitate discussions within the group, and ensure all views are heard.
- The Chair will also represent the group in cross-community "breakout" conversations.
- The Chair has the right to nominate spokespersons to speak on behalf of the group during the plenary.

Vice Chair

- The Vice Chair's role is to assist the Chair (e.g. facilitating discussion within the group, deciding on final positions etc.).
- The Vice-Chair will also represent the group in cross-community "breakout" conversations.

2 x Notetakers

- Notetakers have the important task of noting discussion points.
- It is crucial to note statements and positions of other groups to determine whether you share the same positions, and to facilitate your Chair/Vice-Chair's discussion when working on a consensus with other groups.
- Notetakers will prepare a Google document, and share their screen during the in-group discussions.

Spokespersons (Group/Chair to decide how many)

- Spokespersons will speak on behalf of the group during the plenary. They will deliver the group's agreed upon views and positions on the problem statements.
- Spokespersons can also speak in their own capacity based on their assigned roles.
- The Chair has the right to nominate spokespersons if no one volunteers.
