

Natalia Enciso is an attorney at Law and Latin Public Notary. Held an LL.M in Information Technology & Telecommunication Law, University of Strathclyde (UK). She was an Examiner of the ECC (European Consumer Centre Düsseldorf-Gronau) e-commerce project 2002. She is also Lecturer at the Universidad Autonoma de Asuncion and Universidad Iberoamericana, Faculty of Law, Information Technology Law. She is founder of the Asociación Paraguaya de Derecho Informático y Tecnológico. (APADIT). She was Manager at REDIEX of the Ministry of Industry & Commerce (2008). She was a consultant for USAID, IADB and Mercosur Digital. Received grants of the OAS for the e-government course (2006), UNCTAD e-commerce (2007), the First South School Summer on Internet Governance (2009). ICANN fellowship to assist several meeting during 2009-2011.

Natalia was selected by LACRALO to serve as an ALAC member. Her term started following the Meeting in Dakar, Senegal on October 2011.