

Pari Esfandiari

Pari Esfandiari is the co-founder and president of the Global TechnoPolitics Forum and is a member of the At-Large Advisory Committee (ALAC) at the Internet Corporation for Assigned Names and Numbers (ICANN) representing the EURALO (European Regional At-Large Organization).

She serves at the APCO's International Advisory Council [apcoworldwide.com] and was a senior fellow at the Atlantic Council's GeoTech Center. She is the founder and CEO at the Pario Consultants, an international technology investment and incubating company. She is a serial tech entrepreneur and sustainable development executive.

Ms. Esfandiari holds a doctorate from Oxford Brookes University in sustainability business.