Overview of the New gTLD Program: Next Round

Overview

NEW gTLD PROGRAM: APPLICANT SUPPORT PROGRAM

OVERVIEW 7

A Successful Next Round

The New gTLD Program: Next Round is aimed at making the Domain Name System more inclusive and more usable to more users.

Key indicators of success:

Applications that include new communities and voices, a variety of languages and scripts, geographic and ethnic diversity, entrepreneurs and startups, and non-profit organizations.

A significantly higher proportion of applications submitted by entities outside of North America and Europe than were received in the 2012 Round.

OVERVIEW 8

gTLD Opportunities

gTLDs can be tailored for audiences based on:

Businesses and brands

Communities and cultures

Geographies (e.g., cities and regions)

Governments - local and national - and IGOs

Targeted customers or memberships

Users of diverse scripts

OVERVIEW 11

Becoming a Registry Operator

Applying for a gTLD means you are applying to operate an Internet registry.

An Internet registry is a master database of all the domains listed under a particular gTLD.

A Registry Operator:

- Sets the requirements for the gTLD.
- Determines which second-level domains (the characters to the left of the dot) can be registered, and by whom.

OVERVIEW 12

Financial and Technical Considerations

Application and evaluation fees: USD $208,000-$293,000

- + Standard operational fees included in the Registry Agreement signed with ICANN
- + Ongoing financial and technical concerns

Applying for a new gTLD requires significant financial and technical resources.

All new gTLD applicants must be able to demonstrate the operational, technical, and financial capacities necessary to operate a registry and comply with contractual requirements.

APPLICANT SUPPORT PROGRAM 17

Evaluating Support Applicants

PHASE 1

General business due diligence, including:

- ► Legal compliance check.
- ► Confirming that all required documentation has been submitted.
- ▶ Confirming the applicant meets eligibility criteria for New gTLD Program: Next Round.
- ▶ Background screening and cybersquatting history check.

Applicants that do not pass the general business due-diligence pre-screening will not be considered for Phase 2 evaluation.

APPLICANT SUPPORT PROGRAM 18

Evaluating Support Applicants

PHASE 2

Evaluations conducted by third-party vendor managing a Support Applicant Review Panel:

- Public responsibility due diligence:
  - Applicant does not trade in, produce, or promote an industry/string contrary to generally accepted legal norms of morality and public order.
  - Applicant is not affiliated with an existing ICANN gTLD Registry.

- Financial need:
  - Applicant could not afford to apply to the New gTLD Program without financial hardship.
- Financial viability:
  - Applicant demonstrates plan to cover remaining discounted portion of the base gTLD application fee and submits required deposit.

Applicant is an eligible entity.

What Happens Next?

All new gTLD applicants – supported or not – are required to submit a completed application for a new gTLD.

Requires demonstration of technical, operational, and financial capabilities needed to operate a gTLD.

There are also measures in place to deter abuse of the program, outlined in the Applicant Support Program Handbook.
