00:20:26 Claire Craig: Congratulations to the PHR nominees!

00:20:47 Cheryl Langdon-Orr: especially that it is a mix of those deeply experienced in PHR as well as others less entrenched 00:22:50 avri doria: do the alterante partipte in the meetings?

00:23:03 avri doria: sounds like not.

00:23:36 Cheryl Langdon-Orr: Replying to "sounds like not."

not clear as written if we use the usual meaning of alternate

00:24:39 Cheryl Langdon-Orr: As I understand it secondaries are only going to be involved IF they get anpther seat that is not filled by another ACSO

00:24:59 Cheryl Langdon-Orr: so just think of the primaries being involved with no back up]

00:25:09 avri doria: unless meeting are opne to observers. Will they be open to observers?

00:25:46 Cheryl Langdon-Orr: Replying to "unless meeting are o..."

00:26:27 Justine Chew: Goodnight!

00:26:37 Cheryl Langdon-Orr: Reacted to "It was a very smooth..." with 🙄

00:28:16 avri doria: there are some still around from 2012.

00:28:42 Cheryl Langdon-Orr: Replying to "there are some still..."

indeed just not all in the Small Team ;-)

00:29:58 Alan Greenberg: Quite a large "small team". Often, joining a group does not imply attending or being active.

00:32:39 Cheryl Langdon-Orr: Replying to "Quite a large "small..."

so true! but fresh thinking can only be encouraged by getting new people involved....

00:33:39 Dev Anand Teelucksingh: Reacted to "Quite a large
"small..." with 👍
00:33:42 Dev Anand Teelucksingh: Reacted to "so true! but
