Discovering allocated Variant Domain Names

[Draft 11 Sep. at CPWG] Implementation

Guidance 15:

In order to allow an ~~end-user~~ interested party to discover the allocated variant domain names for a given domain name, ICANN-accredited registrars and gTLD registry operators should accept requests for ~~and consider whether~~ disclosure of this information and unless there are data privacy concerns, the information should be granted. In considering whether to disclose the information, the ~~registrar~~ ICANN-accredited registrars and gTLD registry operators should balance the interest of the requestor with those of the data subject, where such balancing is required by applicable law.

[NEW Draft as of 12 Sep.]

Implementation Guidance 15:

In order to allow an interested party a requestor to discover the allocated variant domain names for a given domain name, ~~ICANN-accredited registrars and gTLD registry operators~~ "corresponding sponsoring" registrars should accept and consider whether disclosure of this information should be granted. In considering whether to disclose the information, the "corresponding sponsoring" registrar should balance the interest of the requestor with those of the data subject, where such balancing is required by applicable law.
