Alice Jansen: (06:06) Alan & Steve have joined the call

Alice Jansen: (06:06) David has joined

David Conrad: (06:08) Hi everyone. I'm multitasking right now (in a conference) so it may take me a second to respond verbally

Alan Greenberg: (06:09) Before we start the 1-by-1 review, are there any Recs that are still missing?

Jørgen abild andersen: (06:11) Pls could you give me a link to the inventory to make it easier to get the individual templates up on my screen as discussions evolve. Thanks

Alice Jansen: (06:12) @ Jørgen -

Jørgen abild andersen: (06:12) Thanks Alice

Steve Crocker: (06:13) No objection to the schedule. Of mild interest, Oct 18 is just ahead of the IGF meeting, so people arriving at the IGF in Bali will have been able to see this before they arrive or while they're in transit.

Brian Cute: (06:16) Got your note Steve. Understood.

Alice Jansen: (06:18) Demi has joined the call.

Alan Greenberg: (06:23) I guess Brian's dream of a 20 page overall report has gone the way of the dodo.

Alice Jansen: (06:31) Items highlighted in yellow need to be reviewed.

Larisa Gurnick: (06:34) Brian, please confirm whether you would like ICC report submitted for translation in its current form, to be included in the draft to be posted for public comment in October.

Alice Jansen: (06:36) you have scroll control.

Alice Jansen: (06:45) Suggestion: In the interest of time, please flag any templates that are final and may be sent to translation

Brian Cute: (06:49) Alice, I think it will be prudent for the editors to review all the templates after this call before sending the "first cut" to translation.

Alice Jansen: (06:50) Ok thanks, Brian - Also may I call your attention to Larisa's message above: "Larisa Gurnick: Brian, please confirm whether you would like ICC report submitted for translation in its current form, to be included in the draft to be posted for public comment in October."

Olivier Crepin-Leblond: (06:53) I agree with Larry on cross referencing

Avri Doria: (10:01) note on the 12-16, 35+36 it is drive and converstaiton on line is possible anytime
