Michael Yakushev: (10:32) Larisa, I have no concerns about the quality of translation - but about the glossary that is used for such translations

Michael Yakushev: (10:33) Agree with Liza

Michael Yakushev: (10:39) Yes - Alan is totally right. Most issues are with translations.

Michael Yakushev: (11:19) very weak connection - I will try to reconnect

Alice Jansen: (12:27) Thanks!

Heather Dryden: (13:43) Why is there a capital on "Advice"?

Robin: (14:11) RE: Reconsideration Requests, we need to know what board was told in their audio briefing on a RR from staff. Some board members seem to think NCSG's RR was based on a "we don't like the decision" issue rather than a "the process wasn't followed." There is some question as to just what the board was told. Right now, there is no way to know. We need transparency on these important discussions.

ICANN RP: (14:58) The ATRT2 is now in a closed session - the meeting has ended.
