Michele Neylon: Oh, look

Michele Neylon: Other people

Jonathan Robinson: Hello All.

Bart Boswinkel: Hello all

Rudi Vansnick: hey nice some music ☺

Michele Neylon: ah yes

Michele Neylon: I can turn if off if you want

Rudi Vansnick: no

Michele Neylon: or change it

Michele Neylon: David Guetta

Michele Neylon: streaming via Deezer

Rafik: there are still people using Deezer ☺?

Michele Neylon: Rafik - why not?

Kristina Rosette: Greetings! I've got a lot of background noise where I am so will likely be on mute for most - if not all - of the call.

Michele Neylon: Disclosure - they've been giving me free subs for months

Michele Neylon: though I am now paying

Rafik: I use Grooveshark

Michele Neylon: I probably have an account

Michele Neylon: I was on last.fm

Michele Neylon: paid

Michele Neylon: they killed it

Michele Neylon: switched to Spotify

Michele Neylon: but Deezer's got some nice features

Michele Neylon: and they were bribing me

Michele Neylon: so I switched

Byron Holland (ccNSO): Hello

Kristina Rosette: Hello David. I have to stay on mute (given construction noise in the background).

Jonathan Robinson: Confirmed. Keith sends his apologies and asked me to be a registries representative today since he is tied up in London and Paul Diaz (Vice Chair) is on vacation

Susie Johnson: Recording is on

Michele Neylon: can someone turn off their speakers

Michele Neylon: the feedback is brutal

Michele Neylon: FYI they're bashing holes in our building to put up an antenna so if you hear weirder noises than usual I'm blaming that

Jonathan Robinson: Can Fadi / Theresa be more specific about timelines for next milestone (processed comments) in accountability work? Set expectations of an approximate time other than ASAP.

David Olive: Thanks, Jonathan, I will bring this to Theresa's attention during that part of the agenda OK?

Michele Neylon: Why weren't the remote details for today's IANA meeting distributed before yesterday?

Byron Holland (ccNSO): Has there been any further movement/decision on how Accountability and Transition may be linked/timed, even if tangentially ?

Rudi Vansnick: The Adobe Connect worked fine this morning, was able to follow the discussions in London

David Olive: OK, Byron, I will let Theresa know

David Olive: Thanks Rudi on the Adobe Connect

Rudi Vansnick: I suppose the scribes of today will be available tomorrow

Michele Neylon: Rudi - I assume so ...

Rudi Vansnick: Jonathan +1

David Olive: Yes, Byron, you are next

Byron Holland (ccNSO): Fadi, I think you are missing the point of what Jonathan was actually saying

David Olive: Byron next and then Elisa

Fadi: Thank you Jonathan and Byron. I am clear now that the CCWG is for the transition track NOT the Accountability track

David Olive: Jonathan you are next

Michele Neylon: Please share anything with full group

Kristina Rosette: Here's the text:

David Olive: OK. We will share any response with this group

Rafik: indeed David, for example I couldn't attend the call with Theresa about the accountability and I didn't receive any update about it

Kristina Rosette: never mind. can't post it in the chat.

David Olive: OK. We will obtain it and share comments

Byron Holland (ccNSO): I am going to have to drop off the call at this point. Thank you.

Fadi: Did Michele just say he likes the website? 😊

David Olive: Thank you, Byron

Michele Neylon: Fadi 😊

Jonathan Robinson: I heard Clooney was planning to use the London Metropole since he's marrying a Londoner

David Olive: Too much indeed we can return there again

Kristina Rosette: He couldn't have it at the Metropole. The bridal party would get lost.

Michele Neylon: horrible hotel

Rudi Vansnick: Fadi, looking forward to your next year plans 😊

David Olive: Thanks Everyone
