

GNSO Review Working Party Meeting 21 September 2015 @ 16:00 – 17:00 UTC Chat Transcript

NathaliePeregrine:Dear all, Welcome to the GNSO Review Working Party on the 21 September 2015

Mary Wong:It's already Tuesday in Asia Pacific! :)

Amr Elsadr:Hi all. I hope it's OK that I'm crashing this call again. :)

NathaliePeregrine:Scrolling is enabled for all

Chuck Gomes:Crashers welcome!

Bill Drake:fair point Jen

Marika Konings:Is the Working Party also planning to inform / seek endorsement from the GNSO Council on the letter?

Amr Elsadr:Gratitude Chuck. :) And thanks for drafting a WP comment to the OEC.

Chuck Gomes:I think any statement should be supported by the Working Party but participation in our discussion is fine with me.

Rudi Vansnick:NPOC is still working on the document as it got changes this morning too

Bill Drake:There's been a fairly high level of disengagement from the start, which I think is telling. I'd hope we could get all groups on board but...

Bill Drake:I agree there will be more points along the timeline for Council, next week is not realistic

Amr Elsadr:@Chuck: I agree. Time is tight for council consideration. If endorsement can be achieved and will be helpful post Sep 28th, we could aim for that.

Amr Elsadr:@Rudi: Do you have an estimate on when NPOC may be ready to comment on this?

Marika Konings:It may be worth to reconfirm membership?

Marika Konings:as some people may have moved on to other things in the meantime?

Rudi Vansnick:we had a meeting last week and scheduled another one this week

Chuck Gomes:Reconfirming membership is a good idea.

Rudi Vansnick:we need to review the text as it is now presented (today)

Amr Elsadr:@Rudi: Is this week's meeting before or after tomorrow's NCSG monthly call?

Rudi Vansnick:@Amr: no it is not, but I will try with Klaus to work on a text

Chuck Gomes:If and when we sent out a draft statement to see if there are any objections or edits we could also ask members to let us know if they are not any longer participating.

Amr Elsadr:Thanks Rudi.

Amr Elsadr:I can zoom in and out of the document on the screen, but can't seem to scroll down. Help?

Bill Drake:Amr it was also on the email list if you want a copy

Amr Elsadr:Thank Jen and Bill.

Bill Drake:General comment again -- thanks Chuck for the work

Amr Elsadr:As far as the NCSG is concerned, I believe this has been extensively discussed in the past, so it shouldn't be too difficult bringing our members up to speed on what's happening with rec #23.

Bill Drake:to be clear I'm not objecting to the structure, I'm just asking if people find it serviceable

Amr Elsadr:Can't speak for other groups.

Bill Drake:I'm partial to the UN numbered paragraph approach

Amr Elsadr:I like "tribal silos" and moats. Very medieval!! :)

Bill Drake:I LOVE interest groups

Bill Drake:I think beyond a certain level there are differences IG vs C operationally

Bill Drake:but we have what we have

Bill Drake:nope

Bill Drake:I was wondering about that too Amr

Bill Drake:is that text a little hard to follow?

Rudi Vansnick:for clarification : NPOC's silence during this call is due to the fact we are still deliberating on the text

Rudi Vansnick:it would be good if we could have the last version in word, as we only got in pdf format

Bill Drake:I actually thought you were going to speak about c i&ii

Amr Elsadr:@Chuck: Thanks, and fully agree. I'll go over this more carefully, and try to see if some of this can be tweaked, or not.

Bill Drake:could replace the change procedures clause

Bill Drake:could be remedied by ensuring that all its Constituencies are represented

Bill Drake:of course

Jeff Neuman:I will make sure the registrars are up to date

Amr Elsadr:Rudi has indicated that NPOC are still undecided.

Bill Drake:we certainly should all be able to express concern that a Rec. with such broad implications was inserted at the end without our vetting it

Bill Drake:Amr the Word doc was sent on the list

Bill Drake:tracked by Google or tracked by Microsoft

Mary Wong:Council meeting is at 1800 UTC on Thursday.

Amr Elsadr:I'm actually still subscribed to the WP list, so with everyone's permission, I will circulate another draft to the list.

Amr Elsadr:Mary answered the question before it was asked. :)

Amr Elsadr:Agree with Chuck.

Amr Elsadr:@Jen: Will you be briefing the council on Thursday?

Charla Shambley:link to the doodle poll: <http://doodle.com/poll/i566km5tqghavk3v#table>

Mary Wong:@Amr, I believe Jen has been invited and there is an agenda item for this, yes.

Bill Drake:thanks Jen

Marika Konings:@Mary, Amr - yes that is correct

Rudi Vansnick:thanks Jen and Chuck

Amr Elsadr:Thanks all. Bye.
