

My name is Jyoti Panday and I represent Centre for Internet and Society.
I am currently involved in research on mapping governance issues and structures that relate to the Internet. My primary country for residence is India and I have no relationships with any parties affected by ICANN.