

Maryam Bakoshi:Dear All, welcome to the NCPH GNSO Council Chair
Interview on 23 Sept 2015

Maryam Bakoshi:Welcome carlos

Maryam Bakoshi:*Carlos

Maryam Bakoshi:Welcome to the meeting Heather

Carlos Raul:Good morning

Maryam Bakoshi:Welcome Rafik and Ed

Heather Forrest:Thanks veyr much Maryam for arranging the call.

Edward Morris:Thanks Maryam. Good morning / afternoon/ evening
everybody

Maryam Bakoshi:You are most welome, Heather

Maryam Bakoshi:Welcome Avri

Carlos Raul:Greetings from Paraguay.....

Maryam Bakoshi:Welcome Tapani

Edward Morris:Pargaguay Carlos.? Get lost coming home from the bar last night? :)

Tapani Tarvainen:Hello everybody!

Carlos Raul:more or less

Heather Forrest:Congratulations Tapani on your new role in NCSG

Edward Morris:.)

Carlos Raul:this is the end of the world, both literally and phisically

Tapani Tarvainen:Thank you!

Heather Forrest:No way, Tasmania is the "end of the world". I've got you beat, Carlos

Edward Morris:Don't worry. I'll reach out, lend you my hand so you don't fall off.

Carlos Raul:but we have here 40 degree celsius and 95% huidity at noon
time

Tapani Tarvainen:Could we move ICANN headquarters to the South pole?

Heather Forrest:But we make good whisky and pinot noir, so it's worth hanging out here on the edge

Heather Forrest:Hobart, Tasmania - the only airport with regular service to Antarctica

Carlos Raul:no recommendation from my side in trip advisor to come here

Carlos Raul:terrible broadband connections due to land locked position

Tapani Tarvainen:Actually I think I'm at the highest absolute latitude

Carlos Raul:here is not about latitude

Heather Forrest:Where are you, Tapani? My mother in law is in Haparanda Rafik:@Tapani from dublin, yiu get to get a regular internet connection and respond to emails in middle of the night

Carlos Raul:we are landlocked just under the amazon forest

Carlos Raul:sticky

Maryam Bakoshi:Marilia has joined

Carlos Raul:it is called the Gran Chaco

Carlos Raul:a big swampland

Tapani Tarvainen:OK, Haparanda is higher than Jyväskylä. Last week I was at Utsjoki though...

Marilia Maciel:Hello everyone! Good morning from Brazil.

Rafik:dont even dare to pronounce those names

Maryam Bakoshi>Welcome Matthew

Edward Morris:Sorry

Rafik: if you have question, please share them in AC

Maryam Bakoshi>Welcome, Amr

Amr Elsadr:Thanks Maryam. Apologies about being late. Hi all.

Carlos Raul:Dear Heather

Carlos Raul:you know that the participation of registrars and registries from emerging economies in latin america and Africa is rather low. What is you position about ICANNs regional strategies to promote the DNS business in these areas? thank you very much

Maryam Bakoshi:Stefania has joined

Maryam Bakoshi:Peter Green has joined

Amr Elsadr:[QUESTION] The IPC normally directs its councillors' voting.
How would the normal relationship between you (as an IPC councilor) be altered to acommodate your role as the council chair? What differences do you see between the two roles? Thanks.

Amr Elsadr:[QUESTION] With a number of mega PDPs about to start where the NCSG and IPC normally have several conflicting views (next gen RDS, subsequent round for new gTLDs), how would you allay NCSG concerns about an IPC councilor chairing the council while this important work is going on? Thanks.

Carlos Raul:Thank you very much!!!!

matthew shears:very helpful - thanks Heather

Amr Elsadr:[QUESTION] What are your views on the role of the council chair in the GNSO's interaction with the ICANN Board and the GAC?

matthew shears:have noticed dysfunctional elements as well

Carlos Raul:very good point on the GAC!!!!

matthew shears:GAC engagement is a key issue and challenging

matthew shears:thanks!

Edward Morris:(Question). Should the CCWG proposal be accepted, the GNSO will need to set up several structures to fully participate in the Single Member. As Chair, how would you approach organizing our response vis a vis role of the Council itself. role of the SG's and Constituencies; specifically in our internal structuring (i.e. ways of determining votes within the single member, ability to request use of the Inspection right etc.)

Avri Doria:Q: do you think that the staff has done justice to GNSO recommendations in creating implementations of GNSO policy?

Amr Elsadr:Thanks Heather.

Avri Doria:foow up Q; do you think that the new P&I recommendations will help? How wiill we handle a situation where the GNSO decdies that the implementation does not flow.

Avri Doria:sorry about the spelling. mean follow in both case. thanks for the repsonse.

Amr Elsadr:[QUESTION] Since Westlake has been brought up, what are your views on recommendation 23 of the Westlake report?

Amr Elsadr:@Heather: Very much agree with you on the problems you mentioned RE: Westlake.

Tapani Tarvainen:Q: What do you see as the major challenges facing the GNSO and the council as a result of the proposed CCWG changes?

Avri Doria:Q: how do you see the endgame playing out on the CCWG work?

Avri Doria:23 is the one recommending we go back to the constituency model. the unexpected recommendations that had not been discussed.

Amr Elsadr:Thanks Heather.

Tapani Tarvainen:Thank you Heather.

Avri Doria:i mean in the council, sorry.

matthew shears:the challenge of a MS structure bounded in a corp structure

Edward Morris:@Matt. It certainly makes membership more complicated.

Tapani Tarvainen::-)

Amr Elsadr:You should be sipping as many martinis as possible Heather. :-

D

Marilia Maciel:Thanks so much, Heather!

Carlos Raul:losing connection sorry

Carlos Raul:lost voice connection;

Carlos Raul:got back

Carlos Raul:sorry

Carlos Raul:but I have to run to local meetings. Very good luck to Heather Amr Elsadr:Thank you so much Heather.

Avri Doria:we did not have the questions in advance either. thanks f or trying.

matthew shears:thanks Heather for your time and good luck

Tapani Tarvainen:Thank you from me as well.

Amr Elsadr:Thanks Heather and all. Buye.

Marilia Maciel:Thanks all!

Heather Forrest:Thank you everyone - very enjoyable to speak with you all

Heather Forrest:See you in Dublin

Maryam Bakoshi:Thank you for attending the meeting

Maryam Bakoshi:Bye
