

Maryam Bakoshi 2: Yes thats correct raoul

Raoul Plommer: That's silly actually, now we can't comment on these anymore.

Maryam Bakoshi 2: I think for meetings its better to have one person enter the RFI's

Raoul Plommer: ...without approving

Maryam Bakoshi 2: Yeah...

Maryam Bakoshi 2: I will raise this with the developers

Robin Gross: that sounds reasonable. we'll still get the member and get the documentation.

Raoul Plommer: Yeah, I do think we need to treat everyone the same, no matter who they know. Let's ask for additional info.

Maryam Bakoshi 2: Robin do you want to enter it, or should I? :)

Maryam Bakoshi 2: Better you maybe :)

Robin Gross: just did it,

Maryam Bakoshi 2: Great, thanks!

Raoul Plommer: I approve Michael. :)

Maryam Bakoshi 2: All, please indicate "approval" on the site directly. Stephanie I can do this for you if you permit me, since you dont have access right nw.

Maryam Bakoshi 2: Thanks Raoul

Robin Gross: case by case

Robin Gross: we should be doing it, Steph, you are right.

Juan Manuel Rojas: Its not enough information

Robin Gross: agree with Juan - what is noncommercial interest?

Robin Gross: agreed

Raoul Plommer: ok.

Robin Gross: same concern with Patara - what is noncommercial interest?

Juan Manuel Rojas: is ASO member... Possible Interest conflict?

Raoul Plommer: I think the previous applicant actually DID say that his interest was privacy and the whois, so I see that counting as a non-commercial interest.

Robin Gross: yes, Raoul is right

Robin Gross: can't be in NCSG if already in another SO

Raoul Plommer: ASO member is a no-go, as far as I know. Isn't it really just ALAC that's able to join us from ICANN

Robin Gross: yes

Stephanie Perrin: true re privacy, but we have a lot of folks who are interested in privacy for the wrong reasons at the moment....

Stephanie Perrin: yes I would have thought ASO was a no-go

Stephanie Perrin: does not mean they cannot follow our work

Stephanie Perrin: so no for this one, right?

Robin Gross: no for this one

Robin Gross: same concern for Dasig - what is noncommercial interest?

Robin Gross: look at his linked in profile, as we often do

Stephanie Perrin: yup

Robin Gross: he's an electrical engineer

Stephanie Perrin: working for.....?

Raoul Plommer: Daniel mentions non-commercial interests but doesn't actually say, what that is.

Raoul Plommer: more info please :)

Stephanie Perrin: ok more info required

Robin Gross: yes

Stephanie Perrin: please input for me Maryam or Robin

Raoul Plommer: NEXT! :))

Juan Manuel Rojas: For me is a YES... He wrote he wants to understand how the policies are developed.

Stephanie Perrin: does not really say why though?

Stephanie Perrin: perhaps our form needs to be more specific.

Raoul Plommer: Also, he says he's from the Philippines, but seems to live in Canada

Stephanie Perrin: that would cover about a million offshore workers here Raoul! :-)

Stephanie Perrin: we have a very large phillipino population.

Raoul Plommer: Yes, but I think it's a little misleading to say he's from an underserved region

Stephanie Perrin: I dunno raoul, let me tell you about my linespeed...6 mb down, .75 up....for 82 bucks a month

Maryam Bakoshi 2: @Juan please can you indicate which application you said yes too earlier?

Robin Gross: Mili Semlani is next

Maryam Bakoshi 2: Ok please can you indicate that on the site?

Maryam Bakoshi 2: Thanks!

Robin Gross: I approve Mili

Juan Manuel Rojas: I also approve him.. He wants to do outreach, as far as I can see

Raoul Plommer: I'm sorry but I need to go for dinner soon, I started going through these a little faster

Raoul Plommer: I'm adding my comments and approving or not

Raoul Plommer: I also noticed, that you CAN comment, if you select the none/clear -option.

Raoul Plommer: we have accepted IP lawyers before (thankfully!)

Raoul Plommer: I mean hell, Robin's one

Raoul Plommer: Yes :)

Maryam Bakoshi 2: Juan please can you indicate your vote for the last applicant?

Juan Manuel Rojas: I will do as soon my computer works. I'm having performance issues

Maryam Bakoshi 2: Ok thanks very much, Juan

Maryam Bakoshi 2: Done :)

Raoul Plommer: Not at all Stephanie, you're doing this for the first time and we've been doing this at least a year. It takes a while to have the criteria in your head.

Raoul Plommer: I went through the applications and I'm going to be left without food very soon so I must run.. Did we have any other issues?

Raoul Plommer: OK. Great. Sorry for this "hit and run" =)

Maryam Bakoshi 2: Thanks Raoul!

Raoul Plommer: Bye!

Maryam Bakoshi 2: Enjoy dinner :)

Robin Gross: Thanks, Raoul, bye!

Raoul Plommer: thanks guys! <3

Robin Gross: also how much funding from govt or corporate sources?

Stephanie Perrin: yes I think that is a good question. Funding source

Robin Gross: no worries, we'll vote BEFORE our mtgs next time and it will go faster

Robin Gross: YES

Robin Gross: Thanks, Steph, Maryam, and all!

Robin Gross: Bye!

Juan Manuel Rojas: Thanks all

Juan Manuel Rojas: Bye

Maryam Bakoshi 2: Thank you all for attending the meeting. Good blye
