Experienced people in At-Large operations

Newcomers

ICANN Community At-Large

Other

Should their questions be different?

Yes

No

If yes, please explain:

What can At-Large (ALAC, RALOs, ALSes) do to ensure a substantial number of responses are received to a survey?

Besides ICANN announcements, blogs, email blasts, and social media, what other means of communication do you suggest?

What existing communications or meeting mechanisms should be leveraged?

What would be an appropriate target for completed surveys, based on relevant populations?

Who are the key individuals in At-Large (or any other organization) that need to be interviewed for the Review to be considered complete and accurate? (general target of approximately 20 individuals)

Please indicate the individuals that would require Language Services during the interview.

What months/periods would not be ideal to conduct the survey or interviews?

How long should the survey remain open?

If the At-Large/ALAC has performed its own assessment of how effective the implementation of prior review recommendations has been, how has this been documented, if at all?

List any significant developments that have impacted, or will impact, the At-Large organization since the last Review.
