Niels ten Oever: can ppl who are not talking mute their mic? tx

Niels ten Oever: I don't think anyone can blindly commit to guidelines, it's always about implementation of the guidelines

Niels ten Oever: imho

Elizabeth Andrews: audio very quiet for Tatiana

Niels ten Oever: it's good for me

Maryam Bakoshi: Its Ok now

Elizabeth Andrews: better

corinne: perfect tt

corinne: I lost audio after cucumber

Vidushi Marda: corinne: as they are guidelines they are severable - we can point to those parts we want to implement; but we need to be sure of the intricacies :)

corinne: thank you

Chris LaHatte: thanks for remembering me!

Chris LaHatte: I am preparing a paper on my role in human rights

Tatiana Tropina 2: Motoko has her hand up :)

Elizabeth Andrews: I agree with Tatiana's approach, that it is important not to adopt an external source without explaining the specific and applicable interpretation of it (Ruggie or anything else)

Tatiana Tropina 2: Absolutely there is a distinction. But this would be applicable law issue and yes if not Motoko is right. And yes I was talking about policy, yes thanks Motoko!

Tatiana Tropina 2: So many yes words I put in one sentence XDD
