

Nathalie Peregrine:Dear all, welcome to the DT-A call on the 14 September 2015
Juan Manuel Rojas:Hi Nathalie
Nathalie Peregrine:Hello Juan!
Nathalie Peregrine:Are you ok on the Ac audio
Juan Manuel Rojas:Yep, but I have no mic
Nathalie Peregrine:we're dialing you back
Nathalie Peregrine:Juan, do you have a number we can dial out at, another number?
CLO:Agree totally Juan
CLO:your views
CLO:sorry hit return/enter mid line
CLO:We could indeed use some of the inline learning system to do just that Juan
*during the process as a staged / step by step learning as stages are passed Juan Manuel Rojas:yes, the same learning system!
CLO:but here we can start integration opportunities even before certification ;-)
CLO:it should not be contingent TO certification of course :-)
Juan Manuel Rojas:That Engagement it must be also something for an organization not for staff
CLO:yes the RALO mechanism is critical here
CLO:been a LONG time since I looked at the form Nathalie but we need to guide people through then forms not just provide space
CLO:space
Juan Manuel Rojas:I should Due Diligence MUST be a community collaboration.
Juan Manuel Rojas:*believe
Juan Manuel Rojas:It is not only a votation concern. It is about process.
Nathalie Peregrine:Online application form: <https://forms.icann.org/en/als-designation>
CLO:that needs fixing yes Nathalie
CLO:I also support the opportunity for ALAC members to question as listed above
CLO:in AP you will probably never get the advice discussed in a meeting
CLO:Yup that online form is pretty much the old form "put online ;-)
CLO:happy for a few calls as needed
CLO:AND to work on a Wiki space of course
Juan Manuel Rojas:in Wiki we could also work
CLO:agreed :-)
CLO:bye THANKS Nathalie great work :-)
Nathalie Peregrine:Thanks to BOTH of you!!
Juan Manuel Rojas:Thanks Nathalie and CLO for this meeting ;) Very personalized! ;)