

Within its mission and in its operations, ICANN will be committed to respect internationally recognized human rights laws and standards.