cheryl miller: Just an FYI I may have an issue with my audio but can see and hear perfectly thank you.

Maryam Bakoshi: Thank you, Cheryl cheryl miller: Will there be remote participation for NCPH members, or will it only be in person? Just trying to clarify.

cheryl miller: thank you Benedetta

Benedetta Rossi: @Cheryl, yes we will have remote participation for all meetings

Rudi Vansnick: fyi : help from/by Maryam is great, many thanks

Tapani Tarvainen: Good lottery, Rob

cheryl miller: could you please re-send this document via email when you have a moment? Many thanks.

Benedetta Rossi: @Cheryl, I've just sent it to you cheryl miller: thank you!

Benedetta Rossi: pleasure!

Lori: I am not seeing the program grid.

Lori: Thank you.

Benedetta Rossi: Sorry about that Lori!

Tapani Tarvainen: Works for me

Lori: Happy to dive into the frying pan!

cheryl miller: A status update could be useful I think-- I will chat offline with Rafik, thanks.

Tapani Tarvainen: So the cocktail party is also outreach event cheryl miller: So are there 2 cocktails, or just the one on Thursday?

Tapani Tarvainen: Only the one on Thursday organized by ICANN for NCPH, but Wednesday is open so...

cheryl miller: Thanks, Tapani

Greg Shatan: Would it be possible to have someone from the Meetings Team come to our meeting to discuss Meeting B?

Tapani Tarvainen: +1 Greg

Rudi Vansnick: @Greg : that indeed would be very helpfull cheryl miller: good idea-- and in red!

Lori: I support the idea that we can use this time to "pause" from the regular meetings to try to understand each other's positions and maybe find common ground where we think there is a wide divide

Rafik: lost the sound

Rafik: lost the sound

Lori: I am happy to moderate closing and next steps as well as the "easy" topic of GNSO decisionmaking.

Maryam Bakoshi: Rafik is back on Greg Shatan: We may want to look for moderators beyond this group, if need be.

cheryl miller: thanks so much Rob and team

Maryam Bakoshi: Thank you all for attending the meeting. Good bye.

Greg Shatan: Thank you all!

Tapani Tarvainen: Thank you all and bye

Lori: Bye
