good discussion!
Milton Mueller:Bye Tapani
Maryam Bakoshi:Thanks, Tapani!
Farzaneh Badii:Bye Tapani
Jyoti Panday:I am sorry I did not see Mr Rao's name in the candidate list. I am new so checking on procedure, is he a late addition from the region? Pardon me if only candidates allowed to ask qs.
Jyoti Panday:aah my mistake see it now
Milton Mueller:MEMBERS should ask questions, not candidates
Milton Mueller:I will have to leave in 20 minutes

matthew shears:sorry joined late and in a train station but has everyone stated their top three priorities for their terms?

Milton Mueller:Amatthew I only statde 2. So shoot me

matthew shears:shame |Milton shame - OK 2 is OK

Arun Sukumar:rafik I can start

Kathy Kleiman:I'll ask my quedstion here: what role in policy do candidates see for the NCUC. Once we did A LOT of policy...

Mikhail:I'm also travelling :/ cant speak...

Jyoti Panday:I want to know what candidates will priortise in order to recruit more members and to bridge the knowledge gap that prevents new comers from participating, especially after IANA transition is more settled?

matthew shears:and get NCUCers into WS2 work

Rafik:@mikhail can you speak?

Mikhail:Unfortunately not :(In terms of the role - I think NCUC should strengthen transparancy in terms of policy development coming from ICANN and other organizations in that area. at the same time we should focus on Capacity building and show how the NCUC can influence on that policy development process.

Mikhail:Capacity building is the key point in my mind.

Arun Sukumar:kathy one aspect I want to respond on your question: we need to reinvigorate the policy committee

Arun Sukumar:on issues ranging from GNSO elections to substantive areas like intermediary liability

Mikhail:In terms of my background - I'm a newcomer to the topic, but extremely interested in the IG. As I previously wrote you canfind my background from the University web-site www.hse.ru/en/staff/mkomarov

Jyoti Panday:thank you that was well answered

Milton Mueller:Naveed wants in. Naveed, can you put your hand up?

matthew shears:@ Farzi - however many you wish.....

Mikhail:In terms of Capacity building - how we can perform it - by strengthen participation of representatives from the NCUC in different key events - not just focused on IG, but also on doing business with the use of Internet and in some other areas connected to the Internet - mobile development etc. Ordinary people should understand the rules and mechanism how they can influence.

Arun Sukumar:+1 to farzi's point on gender imbalance at ICANN and NCUC

Jyoti Panday:thanks Farzi

Mikhail:I just would like to emphasize about information available about NCUC and any meaning: while you type in Google - NCUC - you can find approx. 214 000 results. When you type - ICANN - you can find 20 500 000 results. For me it means - there is not much information about NCUC at the Internet as well. There should be social media use definitely.

Jyoti Panday:Thank you Rao, that was very helpful

Joao Caribe:Strong agree Mikhail NCUC has a strong lack of information on social media

Mikhail:There is no work done in terms of explanation what is NCUC - it is more like a private club than Open Community.

Peter Green 2:Hello, Sorry to jump in so late

Joao Caribe:On other question we need on this "outer" events user that has a capability to report to use

Peter Green 2:I took the wrong time in my calendar, so sorry

Joao Caribe:Exactly Mikail! That's the point I focused now

Edward Morris:Sorry I was late. On Eurostar with spotty reception. Question: Westlake / NPOC. What do the candidates think is the best way to deal with intra-SG issues?

Arun Sukumar:hi Peter good to have you!

Joao Caribe:And must work with all on this improvement, maybe creating a working group

Joao Caribe:Firts we need to map our communications and engagement weakness and failures

Farzaneh Badii:old old

Milton Mueller:mine is a new hand

Peter Green 2:Hi Arun, great to see you.

Arun Sukumar:I too would like to ed's question on Westlake if possible

Peter Green 2:Hope I did not miss too much time for meeting

Avri Doria:Do we oppose consitutnecies or just scouncil seats mapped to constituencies.

Joao Caribe:Mikhail and Jyoti we can continue this communication and engajement discussion?

Farzaneh Badii:oh Santa is here!

Mikhail:Lets continue - I usually participate in different Internet-related events...

Arun Sukumar:Christmas came early for ratio

Milton Mueller:Have to go now. Bye all

Arun Sukumar:rafik

Mikhail:Bye Milton

Maryam Bakoshi:Thank you, Milton

Rafik:@peter can you speak?

Peter Green 2:Yes

Peter Green 2:but sound is not very good

Rafik:lost connection...

Rafik:I was going to ask peter if he want to make his stament

Maryam Bakoshi:Peter please let me know if you require dial out

Rafik:sorry guys, I will re-join quickly

Edward Morris:Question: One of the principle responsibilities of the EC is distributing travel funds. Past EC's have chosen to largely give it to themselves on a rotation basis. At times this has meant some EC members not active in policy work have been funded to meetings to the exclusion of members actively involved in WG's. How would the candidates prioritize travel funding if elected?

Peter Green 2:Yes, I can hear you

Peter Green 2:can you hear me?

Maryam Bakoshi:No

Rafik:can you hear me?

Rafik:silence

matthew shears:must have been the elves

Arun Sukumar:lol

Farzaneh Badii:yes

Arun Sukumar:Peter carry on we can hear you

Farzaneh Badii:Peter cannot hear us

Adam Peake:I must leave the call. thank you everyone

Farzaneh Badii:Thank you Peter

Maryam Bakoshi:Thanks Adam

Arun Sukumar:can start

Mikhail:Colleagues, I can write it here - I'm a newcomer, but I think the keypoint is to build community and not just private club. So, there should be more things done in terms of publicity. And I hope to do it if I'm elected. that's it from my side... Thank you!

Mikhail:Thank you for the opportunity!

Jyoti Panday:thanks to all the candidates for taking out the time. appreciate it and it is a tough choice. good luck all!

Mikhail:thank you! I have to go, bye!

Jyoti Panday:bye all

Farzaneh Badii:Bye Jyoti

Farzaneh Badii:thanks for attending

Arun Sukumar:thanks all of joining and all the best to candidates!

Edward Morris:Thank you to all of the candidates.

Naveed Bin Rais:Thanks all

Farzaneh Badii:Thank you all, Thanks Maryam. Bye.

Arun Sukumar:bye all

Joao Caribe:Thanks

Maryam Bakoshi:Thank you all!
