

- Your full name, title, contact information and employer;
Jeremy Malcolm Senior Global Policy Analyst Electronic Frontier Foundation
- The ICANN Geographic Region(s) in which you are a citizen and a resident;
Citizen of Australia (AP), resident of USA (NA).
- Identification of the GSNO stakeholder group, if any, to which you feel most closely affiliated;

Non-Commercial Stakeholder Group

- An attestation that you are able and willing to commit an estimated average of two hours per week during the review period, which may increase to 5 hours per week towards the final stages of the project, in addition to participating in face to face review team meetings.

I attest that I am able and willing to commit an estimated average of two hours per week during the review period, which may increase to 5 hours per week towards the final stages of the project, in addition to participating in face to face review team meetings.

- Identification of any financial ownership or senior management/leadership interest you have in registries, registrars or other entities that are stakeholders or interested parties in ICANN or any entity with which ICANN has a transaction, contract, or other arrangement;

None.

- Indication of whether you would be representing any other party or person on the review team and, if so, identification of that party or person;

I would be representing my employer, the Electronic Frontier Foundation (EFF) but would also express personal views where there is no established EFF policy.

- A two to three paragraph statement about your knowledge of the GNSO community's structures and operations and any participation therein;

I have a long history of involvement in Internet governance and domain name administration at both gTLD and ccTLD levels. I was one of the original At Large members of ICANN ahead of its global board elections in 2000, and was a Neutral (Mediator/Arbitrator) for eResolution, an online dispute resolution provider accredited by ICANN, during 2001. I have written about DNS policy issues since 2002 ('Who Owns .org.au? Where Domain Name Policy and Law Collide', Domain Names Quarterly, Spring 2002). More recently I have drafted submissions to ICANN consultations including on issues such as Privacy & Proxy Services Accreditation, WHOIS Conflicts with Privacy Laws, extension of the URS to legacy domains, and Review of Rights Protection Mechanisms. I am also intimately familiar with the multi-stakeholder governance model, as the author of a seminal 2008 book on the topic titled "Multi-Stakeholder Governance and the Internet Governance Forum". I have attended all 10 meetings of the Internet Governance Forum.

- A one to two paragraph statement about your specialized technical or other expertise of direct relevance to the responsibilities of the review team in question.

My previous employment was at Consumers International, the global federation of consumer groups, as a Senior Policy Officer. I remain involved on the Consumer Policy Committee of the OECD, and was closely involved in the recent review of the United Nations Guidelines for Consumer Protection at UNCTAD. I remain a member of the steering committee of the OECD's Civil Society Information Society Advisory Council (CSISAC). I am also a lawyer, admitted to practice in Australia and New York.