2. The ICANN Geographic Region(s) in which you are a citizen and a resident	Europe
3. Identification of the GSNO stakeholder group, if any, to which you feel most closely affiliated	Non-Commercial Stakeholder Group
4. An attestation that you are able and willing to commit an estimated average of two hours per week during the review period, which may increase to 5 hours per week towards the final stages of the project, in addition to participating in face to face review team meetings.	I confirm hereby the ability and willingness to spend two-five hours a week on review team work.
5. Identification of any financial ownership or senior management/leadership interest you have in registries, registrars or other entities that are stakeholders or interested parties in ICANN or any entity with which ICANN has a transaction, contract, or other arrangement	I confirm hereby that I do not have any financial ownership or management position in registries, registrars or other entities that are stakeholders or interested parties in or any other entity related to ICANN
6. Indication of whether you would be representing any other party or person on the review team and, if so, identification of that party or person	I confirm hereby that I would not represent any other party or person than myself in the review team, without any external influence. I have been board member of the IGF Dynamic Coalition: IRPC but after 2 terms just resigning actually.

7. A two to three paragraph statement about your knowledge of the GNSO community's structures and operations and any participation therein	I have been active in Internet Governance topics since 2012. Starting with the Budapest Cyberspace Conference, No Hate Speech Movement campaign of the Council of Europe and EuroDIG, IGF conferences. I think it is important to be a conscious Internet user and citizen and therefore join representations which allow participating in and being part of shaping the online world. After joining the ICANN Internet Corporation for Assigned Names and Numbers, Non-Commercial Stakeholder Group 12/2013 I have been active in several discussions and meetings. I also know and worked in person with the newly elected chair, Tapani Tarvainen as we were both in an expert group on Internet Principles (IGF Dynamic Coalition: IRPC) and others such as William Drake, who is also based in Switerland as myself. I personally feel strongly committed to the NCSG through non-profit organisations, human rights and public interest aspects in domain name policy.
8. A one to two paragraph statement about your specialized technical or other expertise of direct relevance to the responsibilities of the review team in question	Working within the IRPC Dynamic Coalition with international experts was very fruitful and interesting (2012-2015 as board member), the Coalition also have gained observer status in the Steering Committee on Media and Information Society (CDMSI) of the Council of Europe recenty. As both the No Hate Speech Movement campaign and the European Internet Governance fora are coordinated by the Council of Europe this also helped me to gain more experience in the multistakeholder approach, ensuring accountability and the interests of global Internet users. My previous Internet related projects and participation helped me to develop a knowledge and understanding of the complexity of the different stakeholders and issues around the role and importance of Internet nowadays and for the future. Therefore I would like to take the chance to contribute to this work also as member of the ICANN`s Competition, Consumer Trust and Consumer Choice Review Team.
