Klaus Stoll:Dear all, I got stuck on a meeting and later on the traffic so I couldn't make it on time, as soon as the transcript is there I will read it to provide my comments. Sorry for the absence. (I am back at buenos aires working 24/7, since we are changing more than President in the next week, the country is kind of in fire, luckily, December has a lot of non-working days an January is a dead month for business and judicial process, until then my agenda is not entirely mine). Hope the excess was successful, as they always are with this group.Cheers,Martín.

Joan Kerr:I haven't heard anything
