

CCTRT COMPETITION AND CHOICE SUB TEAM MEETING #2

CHAT TRANSCRIPT

Pamela Smith: Good morning! We will start the meeting at the top of the hour.

Pamela Smith: Good morning, Kaili!

Pamela Smith: Or good evening, rather. :)

Kaili Kan: I can hear. Can you hear me?

Pamela Smith: Not at present, Kaili.

Pamela Smith: Are you speaking now?

Jordyn A. Buchanan: Hello

Eleeza Agopian: Hi Jordyn. We're giving the stragglers another minute to join.

Megan Richards, European Commision: greetings. I am in another meeting at same time so in listening and writing mode. no talking :-)

Waudon: can we do both

Jordyn A. Buchanan: Agreed, the RT can probably cover #4 ourselves.

Jordyn A. Buchanan: K

Jordyn A. Buchanan: 6 looks good too.

Jordyn A. Buchanan: It's touched on in the consumer survey, but the registrant survey is probably the right place.

Jordyn A. Buchanan: place

Jordyn A. Buchanan: Can't hear Dan.

Dejan Djukic: I will post in the chat

Dejan Djukic: I think that at least third level domain must be included.

Jordyn A. Buchanan: I'm not sure what that means.

Dejan Djukic: Lot of registries offer those the domains to the market

Jordyn A. Buchanan: Dan--yes, they should definitely look at "registerable domain names", so that could be e.g., either foo.com or foo.co.uk

Dejan Djukic: Not sure for gtlds, but many cctlds on regulary bases offers third level domains

Dejan Djukic: E.g .uk was available for a long time only in third level.

Stanley Besen: I cannot hear Jonathan?

Jordyn A. Buchanan: Jonathan is very, very quiet.

Jordyn A. Buchanan: +1

Jordyn A. Buchanan: I think Jonathan is echoing.

Kaili Kan: Bye

Pamela Smith: Thank you all for coming! Bon voyage and see you next week.

Dejan Djukic: Bye, see you soon.
