

Michelle DeSmyter:Dear All, Welcome to the New gTLD Subsequent Procedures WG call on Wednesday, 1 June 2016 at 22:00 UTC.

Carlos Raul (CCT Review Team):90 minutes?

Carlos Raul (CCT Review Team):I mean, is the call scheduled to last 90 minutes?

Steve Chan:Yes, scheduled to last for up to 90 minutes

Carlos Raul (CCT Review Team):Danke

Steve Chan:De nada

Steve Chan:Or according to Google Translate, Bitte

Carlos Raul (CCT Review Team):Steve, I have a technical question: Adob asked me to donwload an app (in Safari) and it does not work eversince. While Adobe-Chrome does not activate my mic. Have you heard similar complaints?

Carlos Raul (CCT Review Team):it has been like this for a week or so Steve Chan:I have not, but those complaints would probably not go to me. I had to download new Java plugins for Firefox.

Carlos Raul (CCT Review Team):well, then may i please just ask for a phone bridge to +506-8837-7176 justin case I may need it?

Steve Chan:Sure, I'll let Michelle know.

Carlos Raul (CCT Review Team):thanks

Carlos Raul (CCT Review Team):sorry

Carlos Raul (CCT Review Team):terrible connections

Freida Tallon (.sky):Good evening all

Jeff Neuman:Its funny when all you hear is silence....I hope you all heard me just state the 2 minute warning

Steve Chan:Confirmed!

Jeff Neuman:funny story while we wait.....i used the phrase " I will be out of pocket for the next few hours" today and apparently that is an american expression. A non-american asked me if that meant I was out of money :)

Jeff Neuman:To which I responded Yes, I will not be reachable by phone and I am also out of money ;)

Rubens Kuhl:Jeff is out of money due to USD 1 per "round" ...

Richard Padilla:Hi all

Carlos Raul (CCT Review Team):Jeff will never learn

Steve Chan:Avri, at least for me, you're a bit faint and distant sounding?

Jeff Neuman:me too

Steve Chan:Much better!

Steve Coates (Twitter):I have to drop off for a family emergency. Apologies.

Jeff Neuman:Sure. Steve hope everything is ok

Rubens Kuhl:What's the target date for releasing the CC1 document ?

Greg Shatan:Hello all. Sorry to be late.

Jeff Neuman:By the document deadline for the helsinki meeting
Jeff Neuman:which I believe is June 10th
Carlos Raul (CCT Review Team):yes
Carlos Raul (CCT Review Team):thnaks you avri
Steve Chan:no problem
Rubens Kuhl:Considering the CC1 documents gets out June 10th, what would be deadline for responses ?
Steve Chan:@Rubens, as noted in the PDP Manual, 35 days are allotted
Rubens Kuhl:Tks
Steve Chan:35 days at a minimum :)
Kristina Rosette (Amazon Registry):Hi. Have been on the call for a bit, but was having Adobe Connect issues.
Carlos Raul (CCT Review Team):@Kristina Adobe connect.sucks as of late
Rubens Kuhl:Adobe working for me without issues for the last few weeks...
Susan Payne:I thought we were going to ask the HAC specifically to identify ways and what they are working on. or is that in he cover letter?
Susan Payne:sorry typo GAC
Carlos Raul (CCT Review Team):just lost the bridge
Carlos Raul (CCT Review Team):it was not an open issue
Carlos Raul (CCT Review Team):just a clarification
Carlos Raul (CCT Review Team):thank you
Carlos Raul (CCT Review Team): sorry I have no mic
Cheryl Langdon-Orr (CLO):bad echo for me
Jeff Neuman:big echo
Susan Payne:identify WGs and what they are working on.
apologies for typo/autocorrect issues
Carlos Raul (CCT Review Team):Disclaimer: Carlos didn't mean to be a pain in the neck, but was asked to take a look at the draft letter from the point of view of English as a second language.
Carlos normally respects Avri's drafting fully. :)
Carlos Raul (CCT Review Team):jajajajaja
Steve Chan:@Susan, we can customize for the GAC. Did you have specific changes in mind, perhaps in section 3?
Kristina Rosette (Amazon Registry):Would the absence of a continuing mechanism be anticompetitive or likely to have an anticompetitive effect? (or something along those lines)
Kristina Rosette (Amazon Registry):works for me. thank you
Steve Chan:Just a reminder to participants that the CC1 document is available here:
<https://docs.google.com/document/d/1Gh8ugZAomD2AGNymmVRgKGP9TA2KQ7BkQbrRAEvsrxs/edit>
Steve Chan:And Avri is making real-time edits during the meeting.

Jeff Neuman:I agree that someone will need to review for grammar as lots of wordsmithing going on...including by me :)

Carlos Raul (CCT Review Team):Question is type=categorie???

Carlos Raul (CCT Review Team):right now in this question is a little confusing

Carlos Raul (CCT Review Team):thanks Jeff

Jeff Neuman:I am good with that "type" of change throughout

Robin Gross:of course the GAC isn't the only group who can categorize in this process.

Jeff Neuman:Understood

Jeff Neuman:I think so

Samantha Demetriou:Maybe and/or rather than and?

Samantha Demetriou:Yes, sorry!

Vaibhav Aggarwal:redoubt q

Vaibhav Aggarwal:redundant

Vaibhav Aggarwal:for the pent up demand

Steve Chan:I think we should enumerate the questions in each section

Steve Chan:yes

Vaibhav Aggarwal:t he first one with artificial one

Vaibhav Aggarwal:demand and scarcity

Greg Shatan:I don't think they're the same.

Vaibhav Aggarwal:right

Greg Shatan:Not sure there is such a thing as 'artificial demand'....

Vaibhav Aggarwal:the wait time is there anywhichways

Robin Gross:"unmet demand" might be better than "pent up demand"

Greg Shatan:Although one might say that defensive registrations are a form of "artificial demand"

Greg Shatan:I kind of like pent up....

Robin Gross:I don't feel strongly about it, just a suggestion.

Greg Shatan:Agree they are not synonymous

Robin Gross:don't mind.

Cheryl Langdon-Orr (CLO):thx for restating I found the last speaker hard to hear ... ok to delete Kristina Rosette (Amazon Registry):Have to drop for another meeting. I'll read the transcript to catch up on what I miss.

Vaibhav Aggarwal:pent up demand is demand created due to external forces

Rubens Kuhl:Have to drop sooner today as well. Bye all!

Greg Shatan:No, pent up demand is demand that exists but has no outlet.

Cheryl Langdon-Orr (CLO):yup

Vaibhav Aggarwal:so this could be on artificial and pent up and artificial scarcity

Greg Shatan:Those are 3 different concepts.

Steve Chan:Correct

Vaibhav Aggarwal:if it is important for the sake of redundancy, we can ask three separate questions then, depending on the purpose it is serving

Greg Shatan:I don't think there is any redundancy.

Jeff Neuman:What would you propose for the 3 questions?

Jeff Neuman:oops...what would you propose

Greg Shatan:On a related note, I recommend listening to "Pent-Up House" by Sonny Rollins; <https://youtu.be/yIlpEnsa2d8>

Vaibhav Aggarwal:related parties

Carlos Raul (CCT Review Team):Applicants and users are summarized as consumers in CCT

Carlos Raul (CCT Review Team):Consumers=Applicants + Users

Carlos Raul (CCT Review Team):about the 3rd parties????

Carlos Raul (CCT Review Team):its in our charter

Carlos Raul (CCT Review Team):right

Carlos Raul (CCT Review Team):applicants, users and others

Carlos Raul (CCT Review Team):and important others

Carlos Raul (CCT Review Team)::)

Jeff Neuman:ok

Cheryl Langdon-Orr (CLO):other parties

Greg Shatan:Good point -- this should be focused on the application process, not the PDP process.

Carlos Raul (CCT Review Team):it is clear, thanks

Steve Chan:I do not necessarily have an opinion one way or the other, but just wanted to try and provide context.

Cheryl Langdon-Orr (CLO):agree Jeff

Vaibhav Aggarwal:sure. will do.

Richard Padilla:got to go bye for now

Philip Corwin:ciao all

Jeff Neuman:I think once the changes are made, we can review for flow and "understandability". I think we will be fine.

Cheryl Langdon-Orr (CLO):Sorry I have to leave now as well BYE

Jeff Neuman:Lets just get a commitment from everyone to work on the list PLEASE :)

Vaibhav Aggarwal::-)

Christa Taylor:Thank-you

Robin Gross:thanks, bye!
