Alexander Schubert:OK

Alexander Schubert:Great!

Maxim Alzoba (FAITID):audio levels are quite different ... might be an issue with the bridge

Alexander Schubert:Microphone input in audio settings

Susan Payne:thanks, Annebeth, the cards sound useful

Annebeth Lange, ccNSO:Susan, we dont hear you

Alexander Schubert:Seems two are speaking

Laura Watkins (Hutchison):Agreed - cards sound like a really good way of getting an idea of the views in the room without requiring everyone to speak

Susan Payne:THANKS, yes it does

Susan Payne:I do have a comment - I think it will be easy to have an incendiary discussion.. Maybe harder to come out with agreed conclusions as we see even in the WG that opinions are very varied

Susan Payne:But I do like the idea of the session

Annebeth Lange, ccNSO:Thank you, SUSan. Comment noted.
