

Reviewing the CEP
CCWG – Accountability
Work Stream 2

Interviews conducted by Anna Loup and Edward Morris

Observations:

- Principle purpose of the CEP is as a gatekeeper to the IRP
- Anything that can de-rail litigation or the more expensive IRP is to be favoured
- There must be discovery rules for the CEP
- Need to more clearly define link between CEP and IRP
- Key to the CEP: flexibility
- Flexibility must mesh with the IRP rules
- CEP just between parties involved; not necessary to bring anyone else into the room
- The lawyer excluded / mall claims proposal, as part of a flexible CEP, makes sense.
