

Michelle DeSmyter:Dear All, Welcome to the RPM TMCH sub team meeting on Friday, 12 August 2016 at 15:00 UTC.

Jeff Neuman:Hello

David Tait:Hi Jeff

Jeff Neuman:having mic issues, so I will likely ust be listening and typing

David Tait:Understood, we'll keep an eye on the caht

David Tait:*chat

Susan Payne:apologies for being slightly late!

David Tait:no problem!

Jeff Neuman:Wow....not alot of people

Kristine:Sorry that the rest of my name and affiliation didn't make it into the Adobe Connect room.

Kristine:Kristine Dorrain with Amazon Registry

Mary Wong:Thanks, Kristine

Jeff Neuman:FYI Susan and Kristine, I am on Adobe connect only and mic is not working, so I will be typing

Kristine:Thanks Jeff

Mary Wong:We have two Jeffs on the call now, Kristine and Susan :)

Jeff Neuman 2:I got kicked out and restarted..but there is only 1 of me on

David Tait:All good Kathy

Jeff Neuman 2:ok...i joined on my phone now since I keep getting kicked out

Susan Payne:Yeas - I agree Kristine

Mary Wong:OK thanks Kristine

Kathy:Hi All - in the conf room now!

Kristine:yay

Jeff Neuman:Hey Kathy!

Susan Payne:great, hi Kathy

Kathy:Hi All

Kathy:where would we find the links to the data sources? On our wiki?

Mary Wong:We haven't put up all the links yet as we were trying to get the data out by today. We will!

Kathy:Tx!

Kathy:This is useful -- thank you.

Jeff Neuman:Sorry for being silent...just reading through

Kristine:Thanks Mary, very helpful.

Kristine:I wonder what the best way is to gather all the questions that come to mind? I have a stream of them running through my head now. This exercise was very useful already.

Mary Wong:Good idea, Susan - yes we can try to do a rough "match" for each time period we note across from each data point

Mary Wong:@Kristine, just keep 'em coming - we'll track!

Kristine:I like that question Jeff.

Kristine:Interesting that 88% used a TM Agent...reflective of large brand owners participating more than smaller brand owners?

Susan Payne:great thanks Mary

Susan Payne:@Jaff - Analysis Report identified a couple of Registrars who received multiple claims notices at one time (significantly higher than everyone else)

Susan Payne:but not named

Jeff Neuman:thx

Kristine:Agree, Kathy, I think correlating usage to the trend of delegations is going to be very helpful.

Jeff Neuman:Yes, Kathy that is very early on as the first delegations were at the ebd of 2013

Jeff Neuman:end

Kathy:good questions

Kristine:Point of convenience: since we're going to be so actively using the data and the wiki, could staff liberally link to the wiki? Feel free to just add a link whenever it occurs to you, in emails or reports. :)

Mary Wong:Will do, Kristine

Mary Wong:I think that's right, Susan

Susan Payne:excellent, thanks Mary

Mary Wong:@Kristine, we've done some Google searches but not that specific one, so we will.

Mary Wong:To be honest, there are lots of law firm memos and short articles describing the RPMs but not many (if any) that provide hard data or deep analysis (that we have found).

Mary Wong:Ah, got it - ok, good guidance, thanks!

Kathy:And there may be responses in the comment sections == after articles...

Kristine:Yes

Susan Payne:i think some of this anecdote might be in the comments submitted during the public comment to the staff report draft. and/or on the preliminary issue report on the RPM review

Mary Wong:@Susan, yes

Kathy:Agreed!

Susan Payne:I agree I think this has been really useful

Kristine:Nothing from me thanks!

Kathy:Good point - late afternoon/early evening on Friday night in Europe...

Kristine:I wonder if the first time we come up with sexy data and a substantive list of questions people will jump back in.

Mary Wong:Sexy data - I like that!

Kristine:Agree Susan

Mary Wong:@Susan, exactly

Kathy:It could just be summer...

Kathy:Fridays during the summer...

Kristine:True

Kathy:Hmmm

Mary Wong:We will send the email to the list asking folks to confirm if they want to continue, as a first step

Jeff Neuman:Thanks

Mary Wong:Thanks Kristine

Susan Payne:and maybe with an eyecatchig title :)

Kristine:Thank you everyone! Most productive.

Mary Wong:Same time next week :)

Jeff Neuman:thanka!

Kathy:Tx you Mary and David!

Kathy:And All!
