Cheryl Langdon-Orr (CLO):NP Jeff you *can* in fact always through me in the deep end np prep required

Terri Agnew:Welcome Ruben Kuhl

Rubens Kuhl:Thanks Terri!

Cheryl Langdon-Orr (CLO): Hi Rubens were on slide 9 atm, and I have just stepped up to assist you in the Leadership

Rubens Kuhl:Now I got access. The bridge had a bit of delay.

Avri Doria:new comer? still? at this point?

Avri Doria:i though newcomer rubbed off after 1-2 years max.

Cheryl Langdon-Orr (CLO):indeed Avri

Rubens Kuhl:Avri, specifically in regards to new gTLD policy development, when I got here everything was defined, both in overarching policy and implementation...

Rubens Kuhl:Included LGRs for both TLDs and 2nd level.

Rubens Kuhl:More like a disclaimer so registries not sue ICANN for lack of UA...

Rubens Kuhl:3: .home, .corp and .mail

Rubens Kuhl:Some proposed, but none were referred to RSTEP.

Avri Doria:also there may be some interaction between this track and track 2 on reserved IDN names - or is all that in Track 2?

Rubens Kuhl:Avri, the possible interaction is that if the policy allows 1-char IDN in some languages, the reserved IDN name list might need to be revised.

Cheryl Langdon-Orr (CLO):there will no doubt need to be some coordination on this

Avri Doria:i meant all sort of reserved names

Avri Doria:and we can always schedule a joint meeting of two track teams

Rubens Kuhl:We have the benefit at 2016 of having LGR (Label Generation Rules) defined for many languages, something not available in 2007.

Cheryl Langdon-Orr (CLO):very true Rubens,

Phil Buckingham:Avri, it doesn't actually specify IDNs reserved names per se - just "review of the composition of the reserved names list"

Terri Agnew:@Jeff, your audio is starting to cut out

Rubens Kuhl:Jeff, you are fading in and out.

Terri Agnew:much better

Julie Hedlund:Better now!

Cheryl Langdon-Orr (CLO):Thank Jeff Thnks everyone ! Bye for now
