

As an Internet society Ambassador for internet Governance Forum 2015 and 2014, I have been working towards bridging the gaps of understanding the regional internet governance issues.

I am a writer, Editor, and blogger. I am Also a Diplo foundation Graduate of the Internet Governance Capacity Building Programme 2009(IGCBP09) with cyber security as my major & completed my research phase with cyber warfare & terrorism.

In my past I have worked with various Software development and online technology organization both at national and international level. Similarly, I am involved with various opportunities of consultation of WSIS process at national and regional level where he was one of the members of the selection Committee member for the United Nations President of the General Assembly's informal interactive consultations on World Summit on the Information Society+10. I am the steering committee member of the Internet Rights and Principle Coalition \(IPRC\).

Currently I am working as the editor for rayznews.com. I was recognized as a consultant for ICT development by the Nepal Telecommunication Authority (NTA) where he is also the member of research and development team of the Federation of Computer Association of Nepal.

With his innovative ideas and creativity he has been working regularly following and writing blogs and articles on Internet Governance Issues.

I am one of the founding members of the internet Society Nepal Chapter and currently serves as the MSG of the Asia Pacific regional Internet Governance Forum \(APrIGF\).

Though a Journalist from career, I prioritized on online safety and standards. With issues and controversies making headlines, my words have always voiced standardization in FOE, human rights, privacy, security etc.