Michelle DeSmyter: Dear All, Welcome to the Privacy and Proxy Services Accreditation IRT Meeting on Tuesday, 10 January 2017 at 15:00 UTC.

Amy Bivins: Hi Nick, welcome! Our call will start in approximately one hour

Nick Shorey: I'm an hour early again??

Amy Bivins: Yes, sorry about that!

Nick Shorey: lol no worries

Nick Shorey: thanks

Ashley Heineman: Guessing I'm an hour early as well. The schedulers sent out seem to be off (at least those set to convert to Eastern). :-)

Alex Deacon: Hi all - note I will need to drop off at the top of the hour today.

Theo Geurts: same here.

steve metalitz: Can we take a queue? My hand is not showing

Mary Wong: Please mute your mics if you're not speaking, thank you.

Stephanie Perrin: Agree with Theo that safeguards will do much to promote confidence that an aggressive timeline will not curtail any necessary work.

Vlad Dinculescu: Agreed with the previous reasoning. I don't think we can do it as quickly as the timeline proposes, but if we have to extend it then we have to.

Stephanie Perrin: That said, the NCSG is lean on resources to staff another weekly meeting.

steve metalitz: You did have a couple of x's there....

Eric Rokobauer: Good point Theo

steve metalitz: +1 Theo. Happy with "customer" for now. But provisional Ashley Heineman: Perhaps stick with "customer" now and can determine later if it proves problematic.

Lisa Villeneuve: +1 Ashley

Greg DiBiase: Does a persistent delivery failure include instances when a spam filter blocks spam?

Darcy Southwell: Re definition of "Law Enforcement Authority," I suggest we stick with RAA definition since the majority of p/p providers are also registrars

Theo Geurts: Agreed

Mary Wong: Per Amy, consistency with the RAA (as may be updated from time to time) was the rationale for the Working Group's decision regarding various definitions.

Greg DiBiase: Thanks Alex

Greg DiBiase: Agree with Darcy re: Law Enforcement Authority

steve metalitz: and/or works here --for now

Mary Wong: The PDP Working Group wanted to make sure that both aspects of Reveal were clarified and dealt with, hence the use of "Disclosure" or "Publication", as appropriate in the relevant circumstance.

Mary Wong: As Steve is now saying.

Lisa Villeneuve: thank you Steve.

Lisa Villeneuve: Nothing to add.

Alex Deacon: sorry old hand

steve metalitz: @Amy, you are referencing 1.c.iii as placeholder, correct?

Stephanie Perrin: Sorry had to step away for a moment

Theo Geurts: That covered it pretty well Steve Darcy Southwell: Agree with Steve.

Theo Geurts: Agreed, we should treat them same.

Greg DiBiase 2: I think privacy should be included here

Greg DiBiase 2: for avoidance of doubt steve metalitz: It's recommendation 2 of the report.

Carolyn Mitchell: Agreed

Darcy Southwell: Agree

Darcy Southwell: Plus we need to follow the Final Report steve metalitz: Here is my suggestion: This Policy does not distinguish between Proxy Service Customers who are engaged in commercial or non-commercial activity, and does not require any accredited privacy or proxy service provider to do so.

Stephanie Perrin: More accurate. Agree

steve metalitz: suggestion

Theo Geurts: should that not read privacy proxy and privacy service providers?

Greg DiBiase 2:+1 Theo
Darcy Southwell:+1 Theo
steve metalitz:+1Theo, I.E should apply to both flavors.
steve metalitz:Agree we should plan to meet next week
Greg DiBiase 2:sorry old hand
Theo Geurts:Darcy is right, plan in advance
Lisa Villeneuve:Agree
steve metalitz:+1 Darcy, so let's agree now we will meet next week.
Alex Deacon:Need to drop. Great call...thanks Amy.
Darcy Southwell:Thanks, Amy.
steve metalitz:Thanks all for productive call. We got a lot done in 60 minutes!
Mary Wong:Thanks everyone
Vlad Dinculescu:Thanks all
Eric Rokobauer:Thanks Amy
Alicia Kaelin:Thanks Amy
Griffin Barnett:Thanks
Eric Rokobauer:thanks everyone
Greg DiBiase 2:ThanksAmy
