Kinanya Pijl:Hi all, I'm the guest, the co-author of the Council of Europe report. I will have to leave the meeting after 55 minutes (16.55 my time, Italy), I hope we'll manage to discuss the Council of Europe report before then. On the agenda it is one of the last points.

Robin Gross:I can reverse the order so we discuss it next. Will that work for you?

Kinanya Pijl:Yes, works for me.

Robin Gross:great, thanks.

Jeff Neuman:We are good. Thanks Avri

Paul McGrady:Can we have a link to this report for review after this call?

Robin

Gross:<https://rm.coe.int/CoERMPublicCommonSearchServices/DisplayDCTMContent?documentId=09000016806be175>

Jeff Neuman:Can everyone else please mute

avri doria:someone needs to mute their typing

Paul McGrady:@Robin, thanks.

Julie Hedlund:@Kinanya -- it would be very helpful to have your notes. I will send you my email.

avri doria:can someone mute the extra input?

Kristina Rosette (Amazon Registry):@Jeff, Avri, Robin: It would be helpful to have some context for this presentation. Is the WG/WT intended to take this as an additional input ? A "first among equals"? Thanks.

Jeff Neuman:This was presented to the GAC and we thought it would be a good idea to have this presented to us as just one input into the process

Kristina Rosette (Amazon Registry):Thanks. I do have another question.

avri doria:I see it as significant input and input that has the support of some of the groups in ICANN.

avri doria:is this doc being taken up by the GAC?

Kristina Rosette (Amazon Registry):Thank you!

avri doria:i beleive it is, but I do not know to what extent.

Jeff Neuman:Q. I note that a number of the interviewees are persons representing organizations for TLDs that have not yet launched. Were there any discussions with communities that have launched to talk about any issues they have encountered?

Greg Shatan:In the Foreword: "I would like to thank the authors, Eve Salomon and Kinanya Pijl, for preparing this report which is intended to prompt constructive dialogue and reflection in ICANN. The Council of Europe will remain actively involved in ICANN's work." Jan Kleijssen, Director of Information Society and Action against Crime

Paul McGrady:@Robin, thank you.

Kristina Rosette (Amazon Registry):@Greg: Thanks. I'd seen that, but was not clear how that statement affected (if at all) the report's status.

Kinanya Pijl:Hi Jeff, the list of interviewees can be found on page 75 of the report. We did not talk to any other applicants.

Kinanya Pijl:I do agree it would be good to talk to those that have launched.

Paul McGrady:Thank you Prof Pijl!

Kinanya Pijl:You're welcome:)

avri doria:For example there are some communities applications that have launched and are part of RySG

Greg Shatan 2:@Kristina, I'm not sure either, but I thought it was worth putting into the chat....

avri doria:(personal view) i still beleive that the major bit of gaming is accusing others of gaming avri doria:are there stats ont ehnumner of community applications: those that went through unchallenged, thos challenged that have gone through, and the number in reconsideration nd IRP.

Emily Barabas:the document is unsynced.

Paul McGrady:@Robin - just need some time to digest this...

Jeff Neuman:It may help people if Kristina could walk through an example (even a hypothetical example) just to take it from the abstract to the practical

Jeff Neuman:Gre. Thanks

Jeff Neuman:great

Paul McGrady:What about strings that aren't exact?

Kristina Rosette (Amazon Registry): @Paul: It would still be possible to request consolidation of objections, but they wouldn't be covered by this proposal.

Paul McGrady:@Kristina - thanks.

Jon Nevelt:proposal also helps to avoid indirect contention sets

Paul McGrady:+1 Jon

Kristina Rosette (Amazon Registry):old

Paul McGrady:"We no longer want to live by the Sword."

Kristina Rosette (Amazon Registry):THAT recommendation was unanimous in the RySG subteam.

Greg Shatan 2:Can we turn the Sword tool into a Plowshare tool?

Jeff Neuman:It should be noted that I believe ICANN paid $1M for the tool

Paul McGrady:I love these rare moments in ICANNland.

Jon Nevelt:Touche!

Jeff Neuman:And dont forget the call in four hours and 10 minutes

Kristina Rosette (Amazon Registry):I would LOVE 10 minutes back

Kristina Rosette (Amazon Registry):safe travels, everyone!

Cheryl Langdon-Orr (CLO):thanks everyone, safe travels for those who are attending CPH
